

SO DRAFTED FROM SING SING

Active Prisons' Head and Kirchw... Form List to Relieve Crowding...

BATTLESHIP DIME ALREADY DOLLARS

Marjorie Sterrett's Defence Appeal Arouses Public.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL PLANS CHILD'S FUND

Meanwhile Little Brooklyn Girl Unfolds Scheme for Young Patriot's League.

Marjorie Sterrett was right. People do want to give money to help protect their country.

But that does not mean that Marjorie thinks her work is done. She is not one to sit back and let battleships grow out of people's good intentions.

"To the Editor of The New York Tribune:

"Dear Sir: I have a name for our league. Let's call it Little Patriots. Our motto will be America First."

"I saw in a magazine a letter from Colonel Roosevelt scolding the mothers for making cowards of their children by being so peaceful."

"I didn't know how to ask him for any money," she apologized. "I didn't want to say it right out."

"I thought I could write to the children in the other towns where I used to live and ask them to form branches there."

"Do you know how much a 1916 model battleship costs?" "Fifteen million dollars," retorted Marjorie, stoutly. "But it can be done."

"I read with interest your letter from little Marjorie Sterrett. I have often thought of the idea of each state build-

HER BATTLESHIP FUND GROWS.

Marjorie Sterrett, who gave dime to build a warship.

Mr. Roosevelt. Marjorie has an epistolary skill which may prove a match for President Wilson himself, if she keeps it up at her present rate.

"What will I call him?" she addressed her mother, but there was no help from that quarter. Mother was cutting paper dolls for a baby sister, and Marjorie had to depend on her own sense of propriety. This is what she wrote:

"Dear Mr. Roosevelt: "Some of us girls of America are going to start a club, called the Little Patriots, whose purpose is to get money to build a battleship for the United States."

"I didn't know how to ask him for any money," she apologized. "I didn't want to say it right out."

"I thought I could write to the children in the other towns where I used to live and ask them to form branches there."

"Do you know how much a 1916 model battleship costs?" "Fifteen million dollars," retorted Marjorie, stoutly. "But it can be done."

"I read with interest your letter from little Marjorie Sterrett. I have often thought of the idea of each state build-

RICH AND TWENTY 6 WOMEN BURNED; WEARY OF BRIDE 1 DIES FOR SISTER

R. W. Bowdoin, Cousin of Late Morgan Partner, Sues Chorus Girl Wife.

A GAY LITTLE PARTY, THEN TAXI TO PARSON

Both Still Under Age. So Guardians Will Manage Their Divorce Fight.

Chorus girl and rich man's son, gay evening in New York, marriage in Jersey City—all figure in the divorce suit brought by Raymond W. Bowdoin against Mrs. Elizabeth M. Bowdoin.

The husband is the plaintiff. Being only twenty years old, he is acting through a guardian, a member of the law firm of Chase, Larocque & Mitchell, his attorneys.

Residents of the broad-shouldered, tree-lined thoroughfare who passed before the ruined structure during the day spoke softly the name of Caroline Tag, youngest daughter of Casimir Tag, a Brooklyn banker, who died three years ago, leaving a fortune of a million and a half.

Bowdoin, who is said to have a fortune in his own right, is a son of James S. Bowdoin, of 465 West End Avenue, who is said to be associated with J. P. Morgan & Co. and is a cousin of the late Temple Bowdoin, who was a member of that firm.

Bowdoin was not much more than seventeen when he first met Miss Maloney, and she introduced him to her mother and sister. There was an interruption in their friendship and for a time they did not meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowdoin did not tie themselves off on a honeymoon to await the subsidence of the parental wrath; nor did they send the usual telegram asking blessings and forgiveness.

Bowdoin left his wife last June and went to live in his father's home. The difference in the social status of Bowdoin and his wife given last night by Mrs. John J. Carroll, a sister of Mrs. Bowdoin, as the chief reason for their present troubles.

Ham, Eggs and Champagne Bowdoin's First Breakfast

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4.—Pretty Bessie Maloney Bowdoin, wife of twenty-year-old Raymond W. Bowdoin, was a hat model in the Maison Maurice two years ago when she was introduced to young Bowdoin by a student at the fashionable Dwight Preparatory School, which adjoins the modiste's.

Saks & Company

Broadway at 34th Street Beginning today, a Sale of Men's Fur-Lined Coats

Men's Burberry Fur-Lined Coats, made of famous English Burberry cloth, in fancy heather mixtures, lined with natural dark muskrat fur lining. Embellished with beautiful beaver collar. Regularly $125. Reduced to $89.50

Men's Fur-Lined Coats, made of imported black broadcloth. Lined with China mink or natural muskrat. Collars are of Persian lamb, beaver and otter. Regularly $100. Reduced to $69.50

Today we shall continue the Clearance Sale of Men's Shoes at $3.95 Regularly $5 and $6

THE selection comprises seven hundred pairs of lace and button vici kid, tan Russia calf and gun metal shoes from our regular stock, to which has been added about three hundred pairs of dark mahogany calf lace shoes.

Every shoe offered is absolutely perfect, the dark mahogany calf shoes being modeled over a very attractive new Spring last.

Clearance of Men's Wool Underwear

At $1.45—Regularly $2.00 and $2.50—Men's Wool Shirts and Drawers, made by prominent manufacturers. Broken sizes; in gray only.

At 95c—Regularly $1.50—Men's Wool Shirts and Drawers. Good quality garments; broken sizes; in gray only.

Also for today—12,000 Pairs of Fancy Silk Half Hose at 35c 3 Pairs for $1.00

Slightly imperfect, but not in a way that is likely to affect the wearing quality of the hose. Plain colors and fancy stripe effects. All Sizes.

WIFE SEES TEIPER; STATE'S CASE WEAK

Prisoner Told a Straight Story. District Attorney Admits—Girl Still Raves.

Buffalo, Feb. 4.—While John Edward Teiper, the young attorney, continued to occupy a cell at Police Headquarters, District Attorney Dudley and his staff kept up the hunt to-day for evidence as to troubles in the Teiper family that might have led to the slaying last Sunday night of Mrs. Agnes Teiper and her son Frederick, and the murderous attack on Miss Grace Teiper. Mr. Dudley obtained a court order giving him access to bank papers and statements. He also seized some ledgers in the Teiper home.

The District Attorney said to-night that he had learned John Edward Teiper was deeply in debt; that he had borrowed large sums of money from his mother and that he had raised money on mortgages and notes. He owes one bank $7,000 and his personal account is overdrawn. The District Attorney also talked to witnesses about alleged quarrels in the family over financial and religious matters.

Mr. Dudley admitted to-night that Teiper had told a clear story, that he had made no damaging admissions and that the case against the young man was weak. He will present the evidence to the grand jury next Monday.

Teiper talked to his wife and father-in-law to-day. Alton H. Newton, Mrs. Teiper's father, declared that Teiper was innocent and would be able to prove it in a few days.

Mrs. Teiper also called at the hospital where Grace J. Teiper lies in a state of coma, broken by occasional bits of consciousness, during which she becomes delirious. She did not see the injured girl. The doctors said Miss Teiper showed improvement during the day. At every sign of returning consciousness she is questioned about the tragedy, as it is feared death may come at any time. Except for one instance, earlier in the week, when she is said to have given an important answer, her talk has been disconnected and incoherent.

At one time to-day she was asked who hurt her. "I was pounded on the head," she said.

SCHWAB BUYS SHIP YARDS

Gets Alameda Works for Over $1,000,000 to Build Merchant Vessels.

South Bethlehem, Penn., Feb. 4.—Charles M. Schwab expects to go into ship building, aside from battleships and other war vessels, on an extensive scale.

Mr. Schwab, according to an announcement, has just acquired the United Engineering Works at Alameda, Cal., across the bay from his Union Iron Works. The price is said to have exceeded $1,000,000. Extensive improvements are planned, involving the erection of three slips where the largest merchant vessels can be built.

SLAYER OF 2 DIES IN CHAIR

Marelli Had Three Trials for Killing Brooklyn Policeman and Fireman.

Giuseppe Marelli, who killed Patrolman Edward Murtha and James O'Connell, a fireman, in Brooklyn, two years ago to-day, was put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison yesterday. He shot Murtha when the latter tried to search him for a revolver and killed O'Connell for pursuing him. He had three trials. He protested his innocence to the last.

The Rev. Father William E. Cashin walked to the chair with him. Fred Bremer, principal keeper, supervised the electrocution in the absence of Warden G. W. Kirchwey, who is opposed to capital punishment. Three shocks were given the victim. William Flack, who was to have died with him, was reprieved for sixty days.

THE DANSANT

at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1916. 4-6 o'clock P. M.

Under the Auspices of the Greater New York Committee for Relief of Women and Children in Belgium

$2.00—including Tea

THIS A Young Lady about to take advantage of Leap Year?

Mercy, No! It is Mrs. White, who has just seen the Boys off to School and now is waiting for the Postman.

And why is she looking for mail so eagerly?

Because last month she wrote to The Tribune, telling The Ad-Visor how Nicely she was treated in a Department Store. She won a prize, a $2.00 order-check, and now she hopes she may also win the $50.00 prize for the best letter received in the month.

Will she? Wait and see! We hope so, anyhow, because she is such a nice-looking Lady.

Oh! how Thrilling!

For every letter printed in The Ad-Visor in praise or criticism of advertisers' methods, excepting only patent medicines, The Tribune offers a prize of $2.00, payable in an order on any Tribune advertiser. Each month a special prize of $50.00 will be awarded for the most constructive or destructive letter printed. Any one is eligible to compete and any number of letters may be written by one person. Your name will be printed, or not, as you prefer, but unsigned letters will not be read, as they provide no means for making the awards which are an integral part of our campaign.

The Tribune

First to Last—the Truth: News—Editorials—Advertisements

TO HONOR WOMEN DOCTORS

Faculty to Give Dinner for Alumnae Appointed to City Hospitals.

The faculty of the New York Medical College and Hospital for Women will give a dinner to-night in honor of the dean, Dr. Cornelia C. Brant, and four other alumnae of the college who have been appointed recently by Commissioner Kingsbury to the visiting staff of city hospitals. Dr. Brant and Dr. Mary C. Lines are on the staff of Cumberland Street Hospital, and Dr. Grace M. Kahrs, Dr. Lillian Marten and Dr. Mary Friedman have been appointed to the Metropolitan.

The list of speakers will include Ida Tarbell, Commissioner Kingsbury, George Davis, Dr. William H. Diefenbach, Dr. Addison Boyce, Dr. Ira S. Wile and Dr. Elizabeth Jarrett.

Distinctions without a difference

Oriental pearls are a Secret of Nature—Tecla pearls are a Discovery of Man—Oriental pearls involve the risk of fortune and peace of mind—Tecla pearls don't involve the risk of either—Oriental pearls date their fame from the age of the Ptolemies—Tecla pearls date theirs from the age of the wireless, the aeroplane, and the telephone—but placed side by side, distinctions cease in an equality of Beauty, which knows neither Birth nor Brains.

Oriental Necklaces cost $1,000 to $20,000

Tecla Necklaces cost $75 to $350

Tecla 398 Fifth Avenue

Men's Imported Storm Coats

of a fine-quality gabardine in gray or tan, with plain or raglan sleeves; yoke and sleeves silk-lined; will be marked for to-day (Saturday) at $14.50 (sizes incomplete)

Men's Winter Overcoats

are now on Special Sale, for immediate disposal, at the greatly reduced prices of $22.00 & $27.50

B. Altman & Co.

FIFTH AVENUE-MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK

Thirty-fourth Street Thirty-fifth Street