

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1917.
Copyright, 1917, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

SOME MASTER MINDS OF OUR DREADNOUGHT FLEET

Capt. S. S. Wood, commanding the Oklahoma.

Photo by Harris & Ewing.

Capt. Henry B. Wilson, recently nominated for promotion to the grade of Rear Admiral, commanding the Pennsylvania.

Capt. Victor Blue, commanding the Texas.

Photo copyrighted by Clinedinst.

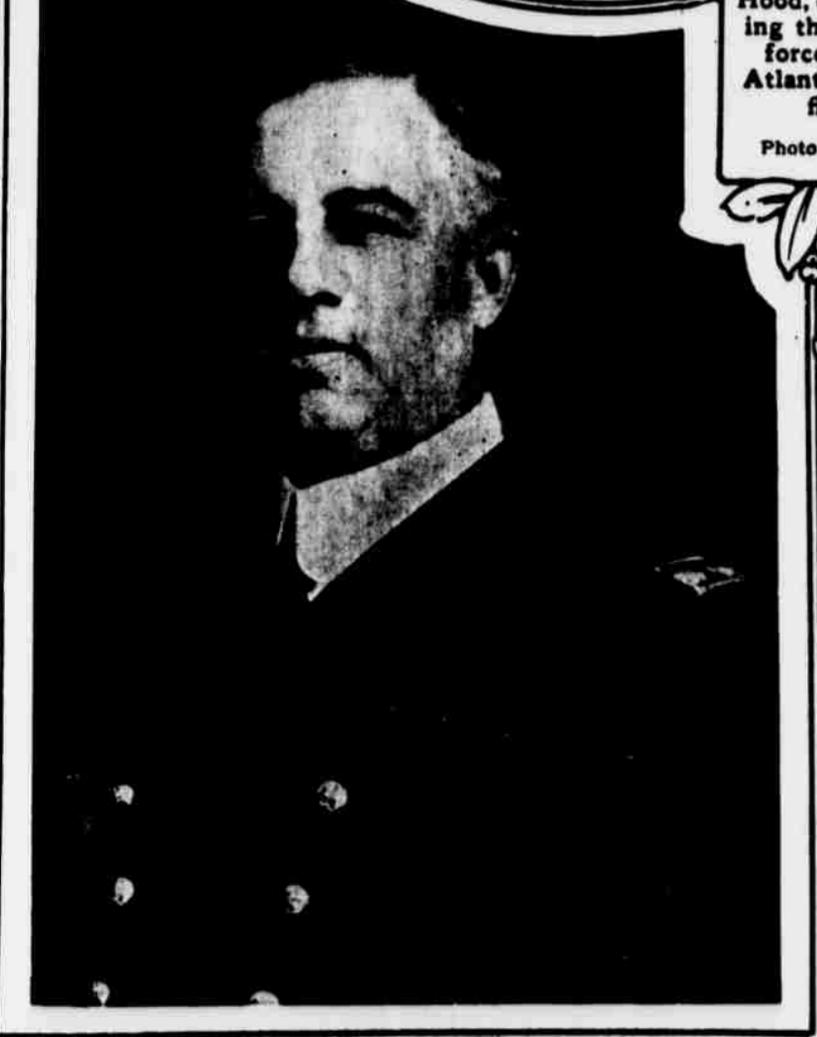

Capt. John Hood, commanding the reserve force of the Atlantic battle fleet.

Photo by Pach.

Capt. Joseph Strauss, recently Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, commanding the Nevada.

Photo by G. V. Buck.

Capt. W. H. G. Bullard, the wireless wizard of the United States navy, commanding the Arkansas.

Photo by Harris & Ewing.

Capt. Thomas Washington, commanding the Florida, the flagship of Rear Admiral T. S. Rodgers.

Photo by Pach.

Capt. John D. McDonald, commanding the Arizona—built at the New York Navy Yard.

Photo copyrighted by Paul Thompson.