ers in the association have football at heart, and will undoubtedly help Ault along in the formation of his sport. Cricket, tennis and other games are also spoken of, but these will be introduced later on, probably after baseball has been taken in hand and is well under way. With so many athletic games in sight, Maui, and especially Wailuku, will have no occasion to complain of lack of recreation, and it will be the endeavor of the Maui Athletic Association to have as many good games as can be obtained. At a meeting of the Maui Racing Association last Tuesday evening there was a quorum for the transaction of business. The executive committee having failed to draw a formal program of the races a program was drawn by the members present. Dr. Weddick, vice president of the association, acted as chairman in the absence of Mr. Baldwin. George Hons was secretary. There are about eleven races in the program, and the purses are not very large. Messrs. J. H. Walker, T. M. Church, J. Kirkland, J. Walsh and S. Kellinai were admitted as members of the association by acclamation upon motion of D. L. Meyer.

bron 251, Larue 250, Shunk 211, Herahberg 171, Oss 170. The best score previous to last night was 458 1/2, made by Ben Clark in the second contest. The four best scores in the first two contests, are as follows: First Contest—1, Elerath, 413 1/2; 2, Clark, 408 1/2; 3, Falvey, 394; 4, Moon, 331. LON AGNEW MAY RE-ENTER RING

It is on the cards that Lon Agnew will fight again. When, a few months ago, he announced that he had retired from the ring, the announcement was made in good faith. Recently, however, he has been pestered with fool challenges to such an extent that he has decided to force the challenge-mongers to put up or shut up. His first meat is liable to be an artilleryman named ... who is said to possess a fighting record as hard as that of the original woolly horse. Mr. ... wants to fight for $1,000 a side, so he says, the money to be posted on June 11th, and the fight to come off two weeks later. Agnew has backing to the amount of $2,000, and says that while he had hoped never to fight again, he is willing to put on the gloves a time or two more with anyone in Honolulu who has enough strength left, after talking, to put up his hands. The following have declared their willingness to participate in a Darktown Derby for colored wheelmen, provided such a race is arranged during race week: James Peterson, Ohio; Alfred Gladis, Detroit; Charley Conley, New York; Sidney Boyd, Australia; Tom Woods, Australia; Miller, Chicago; Jas. P. Boyd, Honolulu.

ALL VICTORIOUS BASEBALL NINE OF BATTLESHIP OREGON NOW IN PORT

U. S. S. OREGON'S BASEBALL NINE. The time passed in the Orient by the men of the United States battleship Oregon, now lying at anchor off Honolulu, has been profitably spent by a patriotic inducement in the great American game of baseball. And it is interesting to know that the men of other countries how to play the fascinating game. They played with Russians, with Frenchmen and Japanese and with everybody and anybody who came along. The baseball nine made a name for itself in the Orient. It engaged in a total of thirty-five games, coming out victorious in every game. The men whose portraits appear above are now on the Oregon, while others were transferred to other vessels. The men who were transferred to other vessels were: ... Bennett, the captain's writer, now aboard the Oregon, appears in the lower left-hand corner of the group.
