FORMER HONOLULU MAN ARRESTED IN PHILIPPINES

Francis J. Berry, an attorney at law and director of the Manila American and Paul G. Carriere, a teacher of languages, were arrested this morning by the city police service on a warrant issued by the justice of the peace of Luneta, Tayuban. The warrant charges them with rioting.

Just what the circumstances are could not be ascertained this morning, as the warrant was served from Luneta to the constabulary and turned over to the secret service, who served it.

F. J. Berry was arrested in the court building, at the corner of Cali, Bongon and Calle Palacía. Carriere was arrested at his office in the same building by Berry’s office, at the corner of Calle Santos-Thomas and Calle Cubillas. Both were turned over to the constabulary, who permitted them to return to their offices and straighten out their affairs preparatory to sailing for Luneta. They will go to that place by the first boat.

Mr. Berry does not know on what grounds he has been charged with rioting.

The only reason that he can surmise is this: About six weeks ago he defended some natives in the Tacubay court, and they, in lieu of payment, doomed their property to him. It is possible, he thinks, that the matter may have grown out of this incident. The warrant is sworn out by the fiscal of Tacubay province—Don Miguel Cabello.

THE VISIT OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON TO PORTUGAL—KING CARLOS I VISITING THE "SARESARGE."

The visit of the four battleships of the North Atlantic Squadron—the "Saresarge," "Maine," "Alabam," and "Iowa"—to Portugal on June 1st was made possible by the action accorded to the officers of the fleet by the royal family. King Carlos at Lisbon was attended by the entire royal family; and in a donating, festive, and tennis tournament arranged for the American visitors the King took an active part. The photograph is a snapshot taken just as the King was stepping down from the "Saresarge." Mr. and Mrs. Churchill may be seen boarding the "Iowa" in the center of the group. The American Minister to Portugal, Mr. Charles Bryan.
