

A FALLING STACK. These two brick smokestacks, one hundred and twenty-six feet high, were part of the decoration of Cincinnati until a few days ago. The one on the left is falling as the photograph was made.

POOR RELATIVE OF PRESIDENT'S DOG "LADDY BOY." The Alredale and its owner, Elizabeth Chester, of 7308 Palmetto street, just after its release from the city's dog pound yesterday.

THE KEARSARGE IN DRY DOCK. The battleship has been dismantled and will be fitted as a crane ship by the Philadelphia Navy Yard force. The photographer went down into the dock to get his picture.

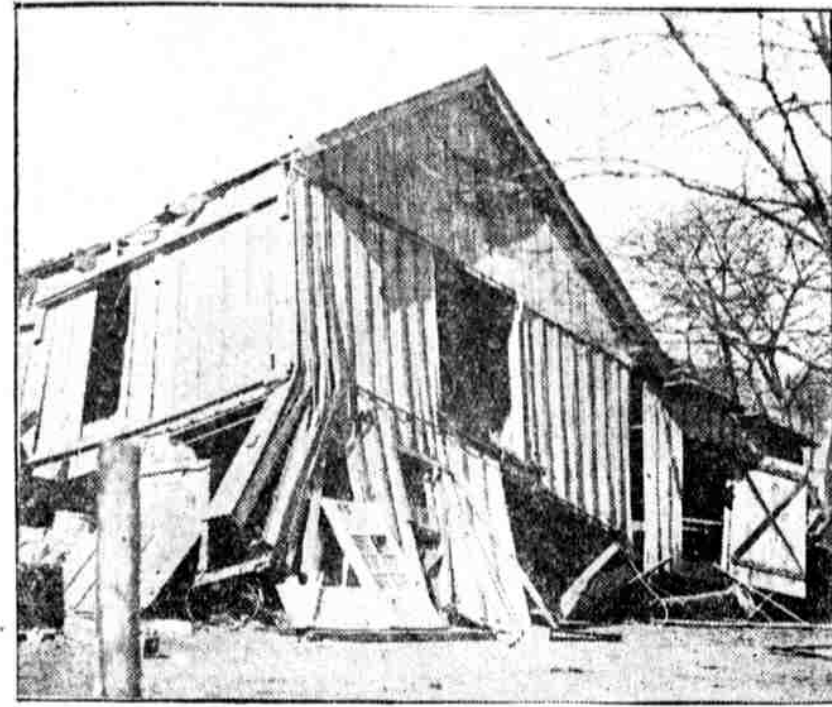

OUT WITH "BEAU BRUMMEL." Miss Vera Weber, a member of the Manheim Hunt Club, was photographed in Fairmount Park. It's her own horse.

ON THEIR HONEYMOON. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, at Palm Beach, where they were married on March 2. Mrs. Thomas was formerly Mrs. Marie Good Sackett.

TARRING. A crew of the schoolship Annapolis, now tied up at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, assisting in the spring cleaning of the ship.

MORE OF THE STORM DAMAGE. East Downtowner was hard hit by the terrific storm of Wednesday afternoon. Scores of homes and other buildings were wrecked. This barn was one of many like it which were damaged. The power of the wind is indicated by the way the large tree was torn out by its roots.

See above caption for context.

MISS EMILY EXLEY talks on horticulture as a profession in an Editorial Page interview.

GOOD CARE FOR BABY KELLY. Miss Mary Pura, a nurse at the St. Christopher's Hospital, is looking after the tot. The hospital officials are making a drive for funds.

CHELtenham HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS AWARD JACK'S JINGLE PRIZE. A jingle jury in Elkins Park selected the winner announced on the page opposite the jingles. From left to right: Elizabeth B. Scarborough, Haddon, Pa.; Louise Lichtenthaler, Ashbourne, Pa.; C. V. Speck, Germantown; Evelyn M. Newhall, Frankford; Ann E. Hartzler, Jenkintown, Pa. and Anna W. Schramm, Elkins Park.

HIS FIRST DAY. Dr. Edwin C. Broome, new superintendent of schools, started yesterday morning at 8:45. He was photographed at his desk.

FISHERS' ASSOCIATION OF THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Forty-seventh and Kingsessing avenue, who selected today's winner in the limerick contest. They are, first row (bottom), left to right, Messrs. Powell, McCartney, Corhead, Mann, Ramsdell, Russell, Jones. Second row—Messrs. Uber, McKee, Ramsdell, Zerfing, Kahler, Hunt, Cooper, Patton, Uher. Third row—Messrs. Gourley, Sinclair, Burnite, Karper, Cork, Cleland, Jr., Ramsdell, Vaughan, Letzkus, Houston, Allen, Caldwell, Kerswill. Top row—Messrs. Thomas, Craft, Kirk, English.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

JOSEPH SCHNITZEL, 5042 North Third street, mending lead parts for lamps at the Philadelphia Casket Hardware Co., at Montgomery avenue and Howard street. He makes 500 a day.

HE'S A FORWARD. Clifford's work has been talked about all during the basketball season. He's with Catholic High.

IN CHARGE OF SCHOOLSHIP ANNAPOLIS. He is Lieut. Commander Ralph W. Dempwolf.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

EIGHT YEARS AT BROAD STREET AND SOUTH PENN SQUARE. William A. Faus has been a reserve patrolman for nine years. He lives at 4220 Clifton street.

T. PASHA. The Turkish representative at the Allied Conference, held at St. James Palace, London.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS FLORENCE LAYER 1520 South Eighth street Philadelphia