

United States Battleship Missouri, Followed by the Battleships Ohio and Wisconsin, Passing Through the Panama Canal Bound for San Francisco, Marking the First Time in History When American Warships Have Passed from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coasts Without First Rounding the Continent of South America.

(Photo © American Press Assn.)

LITTLE MISS MEGAN LLOYD GEORGE, Daughter of David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions, Selling a French Flag to a British Soldier on France's Day.

San Francisco Woman Kissing the Liberty Bell on Its Arrival in Front of the Pennsylvania Building at the Panama Exposition.

(Photos by International News Service.)

GENERAL NELSON A. MILES, U. S. A., RETIRED, (FOURTH FROM THE LEFT) AND A PARTY OF FRIENDS, INTERESTED SPECTATORS AT THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST, WON BY OUMET.

(Photo © Boston Photo News Co., from Medem Photo Service.)

Girls of English Society Taking Part in a Haymaking Demonstration on the Grounds of the London West End Mansion of Lady Cowdray, Held to Instruct in Women's New Work on the Land While the Men Are at the Front.

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)