

JUDGE J. WILLIS MARTIN is pictured above receiving the congratulations of Edward Bok on the success of the Welfare Federation in achieving its goal of $2,766,000.

HUSKY ARMY FOOTBALL SQUAD INVADES PHILADELPHIA. Warlike activities are under way at Franklin Field in preparation for the battle with their traditional rivals, the Navy, tomorrow. West Point's brawny football warriors are shown above engaged in secret practice on Penn's gridiron. On the left is pictured Major Charles Daly, head coach and famous football authority, in charge of squad. End Coach Major Neyland is shown on the right.

ROOTING FOR HIS DAD'S TEAM. One of Army's mascots, Dan Daly, son of Major Charles Daly, head coach for the Army, arrived with the squad yesterday.

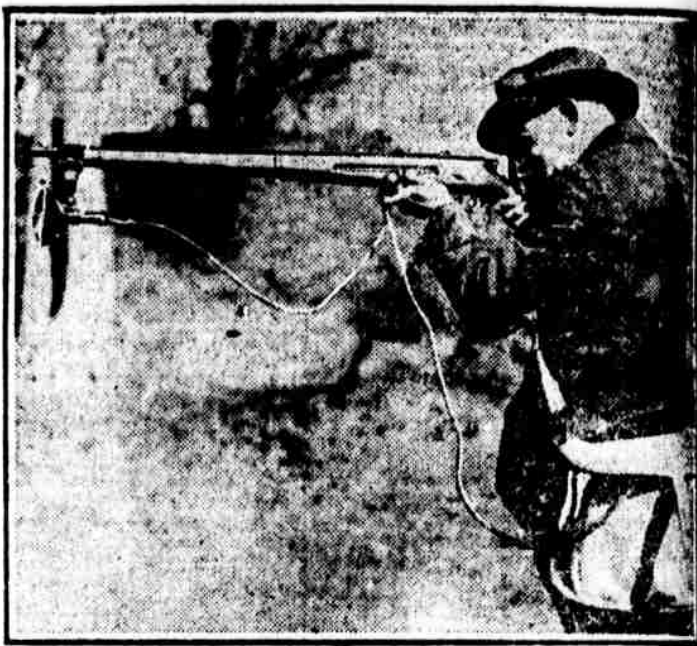

MRS. JOHN O. MILLER, State Chairman of the Pennsylvania League of Woman Voters, and her two little daughters, Barbara and Eliza, four and eight years old, respectively.

THESE FAIR SENORITAS imparted atmosphere and romance of old Madrid to the Espagnol, held for benefit of New York's only "100 per cent Spanish" Church. They are Marina Angelina, Lucrecia Pabilones, Josefina Perez and Heri Martinez.

PAYING THEIR LAST TRIBUTE to the U. S. S. Missouri, girls of the Saybrook School, Overbrook, gathered on the deck of the old battleship, now being scrapped at Bridesburg, on the Delaware.

A MODERN PIED PIPER. Captain H. S. Reynolds, of the Central Park Zoo, has greatly depleted the rat population, supplementing his deadly skill with a flashlight attachment.

NATIONAL MUNICIPAL LEAGUE MEETING at the City Club. Henry R. Waite, of New York, president of League, and Clinton Rogers Woodruff, honorary secretary, were present.

AN INTERESTING STUDY of Leopold Stokowski listening to Mr. Bok's announcement of success of Welfare drive.

CONTENDERS TO COMPETE FOR HIGHEST HONORS here Thanksgiving week. Miss Emma Norris and Miss Anne Townsend are both good prospects for the All-Philadelphia Hockey Team to play in national tournament.

JO DAVIDSON, American sculptor, was among those sailing for Europe recently on the S. S. Paris.

GOLIATH MIGHT HAVE used shears and razor made by California cutler.

MME. MARCEL STEIN-BRUGGE sails for Paris wedding of sister-in-law.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

"FAIR FROM THE MADDING CROWD." A marked contrast to present-day traffic conditions is presented in this old-time picture of Broad street, looking north from Spruce, in 1880, showing Horticultural Hall in foreground, since replaced by Shubert Theatre. Send us your old Philadelphia photos.

BATTLING FOR VICTORY in the pushball contest recently staged at Camp Humphreys, as part of program to determine the best all-round company; boys of that Virginia encampment are shown above during the fray.

Countess Constance Hillyer de Caen, here to visit gold-star mothers. ROME'S MOST BEAUTIFUL, Signorina Rita Guarini, selected by committee of artists and sculptors. Major General John L. Hines, recently appointed Deputy Chief of Staff.

STIRRING ACTION marked the hotly contested lacrosse match at Northolt, when the London School of Medicine crossed sticks with Bedford College. The camera caught the fair British athletes in action during an exciting moment of the game.