

WORLD'S UNENDING DRAMA AND ACTORS IN ITS PRINCIPAL SCENES AS REVEALED BY THE CAMERA

GERMAN TRAIN MINED AND BLOWN UP BY SAPPERS IN NORTHERN FRANCE
The picture shows the havoc wrought with a moving train by dynamite planted underneath the track. Such mines are sown at the end of long tunnels, which are started from an enemy trench and completed sometimes after weeks of tedious labor. There have been cases in which entire companies of soldiers were blown to atoms.

TRUANT YOUNG LADY DISLIKES THE PHOTOGRAPHER
Miss Elvira Dolores Guidone, 16 years old, of Hartford, Conn., returned suddenly to her home after a mysterious disappearance in which the entire nation became interested.

FEMINISM NOW MAKES ENTRY INTO JAPAN
The picture shows the wife of a Tokio politician out on the street soliciting votes for her husband, thereby scandalizing the conservative element in the Flowery Kingdom.

MIDSHIPMEN FROM ANNAPOLIS LAND ON PIER AT SAN DIEGO AFTER VOYAGE THROUGH THE CANAL
The battleships Ohio and Missouri recently took these budding naval officers by way of Panama to the Pacific coast, where they will visit the Expositions. They were addressed by ex-President Roosevelt when at San Diego. The middies, being a rare sight in the West, have attracted much attention.
