

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions, weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in the country has such a record of cures of female ills, and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction. Address, Lynn, Mass.

URGE IRISH REVOLT.

STARVING PEOPLE ATTACK LANDLORDS.

Riots Have Already Occurred—Farmers Unable to Support Families—Constabulary Being Increased—Strife Is Feared by English.

Since the Nationalists' convention in Dublin rejected the partial home-rule scheme of the English Liberal government, affairs in Ireland have been rapidly drifting into an acute phase. Nationalist Ireland has repudiated all forms of compromise, and the extremists have secured a greater following than they had since the days of the old Land League. A new organization, the Sinn Fein, composed of young these counties great tracts of land have been turned into grazing farms and landlords have refused to sell, and in some cases to rent to small tenants. Farmers declare they are unable to support themselves and their children and must fight for the bare necessities of life.

The Archbishop of Cashel, at Moy carkey, Tipperary County, declared: "It was never more difficult to live on the soil of Ireland than it is to-day. We are holding on by grit and industry, but we are rapidly finding even this impossible. Many of our best farmers have been obliged to leave their native land. This condition must prevail as long as the best land in Ireland is kept from the people. The only men, is securing an immense following. Sinn Fein demands not only an independent Ireland, but a revival of the old Gaelic tongue and the Gaelic literature.

In the western counties the discontent is extreme. In Kings and Galway Counties there have been repeated raids on property, which the police have been unable to prevent and the courts have been unable to punish. In remedy is to divide the land into small holdings."

Similar speeches, but more violent have been delivered all over the country. The government has augmented the police force in the western counties, and because of the crisis the annual constabulary tournament was in definitely postponed.

The greatest enmity is displayed to ward the owners of big grazing farms. Hundreds of head of cattle have been driven off. In some instances the half-crazed farmers have formed cattle maiming bands and proceeded at midnight to mutilate the grazing cattle by hamstringing them or cutting their throats. In some cases cattle have been tied together by their tails and the animals struggled until one or the other had its tail pulled out by the roots. Unpopular landlords and officials serving writs have been waylaid on dark roads and severely beaten.

Under the present law the government will advance money to farmers to buy lands when the landlords consent to sell. It is said, however, the landlords will only sell the poor land, keeping good land for grazing. A compulsory purchase act is widely demanded.

TO READERS OF THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL:

Did you read the article published by The Ladies' Home Journal in May 1904, attacking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? Have you seen the statement more recently made by Mr. Bok, the Editor of that magazine that his company "has not paid a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern * * * in settlement of any suit"? We wish you to know the truth. The facts are these:

Four days after the article in May 1904, appeared, Dr. Pierce's company sued The Ladies' Home Journal publishers for libel. The trial was had in April last. Dr. Pierce proved that the attack made by The Ladies' Home Journal was false. He proved that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does not, and never did contain either alcohol or any of the injurious drugs which The Ladies' Home Journal falsely stated it did contain. This was so conclusively shown that the attorneys for The Ladies' Home Journal were forced to admit it. The jury rendered a verdict against The Ladies' Home Journal in favor of Dr. Pierce's company for $16,000.00. This was a complete vindication of Doctor Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription." It judicially established that the libel was wholly false, and without any justification.

Dr. Pierce, however, believed that his company is justly entitled to a verdict for a much larger sum. Through his attorneys he has, therefore, applied to the court for a new trial of the case. For this reason, and for this reason alone, has The Ladies' Home Journal not yet paid "a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern." Dr. Pierce has simply chosen not to collect the judgment until the motion for a new trial has been decided.

In the light of these facts does not this boastful statement that it "has not paid a single penny to Dr. R. V. Pierce's concern" look like a cheap and common bluff, a half truth intended to mislead you?

During the trial of the libel suit against the above mentioned publishers, Dr. Lee H. Smith, Vice-President of the World's Dispensary Medical Association, stated under oath that the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription were wholly extracted from the following native roots: Golden Seal, Blue Cohosh, Lady's Slipper, Black Cohosh and Unicorn by means of pure glycerine of proper strength. He was asked how he knew, as a physician and experienced medical man, that the "Favorite Prescription" was a cure for the diseases peculiar to women, such as "female weakness," "wobbling pelvic catarrh," "drains," "prolapseus," "retroversion," "irregular and painful periods," and other diseases of the womanly organs, and he stated that he knew such was the fact because of his professional experience and the many thousands of women whose ills, to his personal knowledge, had been cured by this "Prescription."

This experience of Dr. Smith was corroborated by the standard Medical Authorities of the several schools of practice, endorsing the various ingredients in the strongest terms. Dr. Smith being asked to name some of these authorities as to the curative value of the above roots read from the standard works, such as the United States Dispensary; The American Dispensary; Organic Medicines, by Grover Cox, M. D.; Materia Medica, by Professor Finley Ellingwood of the Bennett Medical College, Chicago; "New Remedies," by Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Chicago; Text-Book of Therapeutics, by Dr. Hobart A. Hare, Prof. in Univ. of Penna.; Laurence Johnson, M. D., Prof. in University of New York; Prof. John King, Author of "Woman and Her Diseases"; Professor John M. Scudder, M. D., Author of a treatise on "The Diseases of Women"; Horatio C. Wood, M. D., Author of "Therapeutics"; Roberts Bartholow, A. M., M. D., Professor of Materia Medica, Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia.

All these recognized and standard authorities praise, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient which enters into the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments. In fact the "Favorite Prescription" stands alone as being the only medicine for woman's special ailments which has any such professional endorsement of its several ingredients which fact is generally recognized as entitled to much more weight than any amount of lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The "Favorite Prescription" stands alone as the only non-secret, medicine for woman's ailments. Its manufacturers are not afraid to publish its ingredients, as they do, broadcast—thus courting the fullest scrutiny. The "Favorite Prescription" has been on trial in court and came out fully vindicated as containing no harmful or habit-forming drugs. What other medicine for women could stand such a test?

No invalid woman can afford to accept a secret nostrum of unknown composition for this tried and proven remedy of known composition. Leading physicians often prescribe it because they know exactly what it is made of and that the ingredients of which it is composed are the very best known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and delicate ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not advertised as a "Cure All" but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a superior and most positive remedy for one class of diseases only—those easily recognized weaknesses, derangements, irregularities and painful disorders peculiar to women. It is a powerful, yet gently acting, invigorating, tonic and strengthening nerve. For weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, whether it be from too frequent bearing of children or from too worry, care, or over exertion of any kind, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most efficient in building up the strength, regulating all the womanly functions, banishing pain and bringing about a regular and healthy, vigorous condition of the whole female system.
