IS TIRED OF LIFE BUT STILL LIVES

Palmer Fun Palmano, Letter and Wild Irish Rose from Palma in America

Salt Lake City, Dec. 29, 1910.

Among the most interesting of the annual series of the women's organization is the one held by the Standard Oil Company of America, in Salt Lake City. The company has a large number of women on its payroll, and the women held a large meeting in the company's auditorium yesterday. The meeting was well attended, and was marked by the presence of many prominent women from different parts of the country.

During the meeting, the women discussed the important question of the relationship of the women's organization to the Standard Oil Company. They agreed that the organization should be kept independent, and that the women should be able to express their own views and ideas on all matters pertaining to their work.
