

A large, dark metal bell is the central focus of the image. It is mounted on a black cylindrical post. The bell has a wide, flared bottom and a narrower top. On the front of the bell, the text "U.S.S. DELAWARE" is inscribed in a bold, sans-serif font, with "1910." below it. The bell is set on a red brick-paved surface. In the background, there is a white stone wall and a dark metal railing. The lighting is bright, casting a shadow of the bell onto the bricks.
