Five Serious Charges of Inefficiency of Our Navy
Congressman Gardner's "Wake Up, America," Speech Supported by Further Disquieting Accusations Made to the Senate Naval Committee.

This warning of Representative A. P. Gardner of Washington, one of the staunchest of the insurgents, has been renewed in speaking on the subject of the inefficiency of the United States Navy. It is a matter of great concern to the country's future.

"I have been instructed," said Mr. Gardner, "inquiries have been made, and reports have been received from men of high rank and capacity, that the inefficiency of our Navy is a matter of great consequence. It is necessary that we, as a nation, should be prepared to meet the challenge of any enemy that may arise."

The reports indicate that our Navy is not as strong as it should be. It is necessary that we, as a nation, should be prepared to meet the challenge of any enemy that may arise.
