U. S. WAR BILLS MOUNTING AGAIN; TOTAL 30 BILLION

April Outlays Reach $1,420,000,000—Allies Owe This Country $9,000,000,000.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Nearly six months after the signing of the armistice America's war expenses not only are continuing without abatement, but actually are increasing over those of the last few months. This was shown to-day by a Treasury report of Government outlays for April, amounting to approximately $1,420,000,000, of which about two-thirds went to pay the nation's direct war bills and one-third went to the Allies to enable them to pay obligations incurred in this country heretofore for war materials and foodstuffs.

The gradual mounting of war expenses from month to month, following the big drop around $2,000,000,000 a month last December and January, to $1,180,000,000 in February, was cited by Treasury officials as a very substantial reason why the Victory Liberty Loan must be generously subscribed. The increase in the last two months is attributed to the gradual settling of manufacturers' accounts by the War Department and by the higher demand of the Allies for credits with which to pay bills previously incurred in this country.

The tremendous outlays in April raised the United States' actual expenditures since the Nation entered the war a little more than two years ago to about $30,500,000,000. About $9,000,000,000 of this has gone to the Allies and will be repaid eventually. Without war the Government's expenses probably would not have been more than $2,000,000,000 in the two years, officials believe.

On this basis it is indicated the Government has passed something like $18,500,000,000 across the counter for war materials, army equipment and supplies, merchant ships, navy vessels, and the "overhead" costs of maintaining a big fighting machine. Through sale of materials on hand, and salvaging of considerable Government property, some officials hope to get as much as $2,000,000,000. Net war costs will be reduced by that sum, whatever it may prove finally to be.

In April the Government checks paid by the Treasury amounted to about $382,000,000 for ordinary expenses, including about $100,000,000 as interest on Liberty Bonds and certificates of indebtedness. More than $400,000,000 went to the Allies, a larger sum than in any month since last October. Nearly $11,000,000 went into farm loans. Income to meet these demands came principally from sale of certificates of indebtedness, from which about $700,000,000 was realized in April. Approximately $100,000,000 came into the Treasury late in the month as the first fruits from the Victory Liberty Loan. Tracking in also came $1,000,000 belated payments on the Third Liberty Loan and $322,000 on the Fourth Loan.

Taxes due in March, but not paid into the Treasury by revenue collectors until the first part of April, brought in about $22,000,000. As an indication of duty imports, only $14,850,000 was realized from customs duties.

War savings stamps sales are falling lower and lower. In April they amounted to about $3,500,000; in March they were $10,143,000; in February $15,816,000; in January, $70,996,000. For each of the last six months of 1918 sales were on an average of $100,000,000. Officials admit that if the sales do not increase materially, the war savings organization would be forced to disband.

Mascot Worries Are Over As Gobs Get Gift of Monkey

Lieut. T. N. Vinson and Jacoby

Lieut. T. N. Vinson, U. S. N., was worried. He was so worried that he talked about it. This was on the deck of the battleship North Dakota.

"Here I am," he said, "assigned to go on a destroyer from Philadelphia to Key West and up the Mississippi River with the anti-submarine flotilla. It'll be a great trip, but we haven't got a mascot, and that means a discontented crew. We've got to have a mascot, and I don't know where to get it."

"Nothing easier," said a civilian who was visiting the ship. "Dismiss the matter from your mind. The mascot is yours."

That was a few days ago. Soon afterward the mascot arrived, a huge monkey by the name of Jacoby. He is now thoroughly at home on the destroyer Isabel.

The civilian? His name was John Ringling.

WEALTH AND BUSINESS TAX IN ENGLAND IS INCREASED

New Budget Also Provides for Import Preference From Dominion and Colonies.

LONDON, May 1.—Features of the Government budget, that are causing discussion are the continuance of heavily taxing wealth without an increase of taxes for people of moderate means and the launching of the plan of preference for imports from the dominions and colonies.

The taxation on wealth and business is illustrated by the increase on inheritance taxes, beginning with 5 per cent on £15,000 estates, so that they pay 10 instead of 5 per cent. An estate of £1,000,000 pays 30 instead of 25 per cent.

Business is taxed by the retention of an excess profits tax of 40 per cent, half the existing rate. Business men complain that it discourages enterprise.

The policy of imperial preference on imports is the first wedge for the introduction of the protective system. Free traders promise a fight.

The demand for more and better beer is granted, with the allowance increased by an outlay of 20 per cent.

Rinse in tepid water. Repeat in two weeks if needed. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum everywhere 25c each.

BEGGED TO BE KILLED.

Asked Policeman to Shoot Him as Stabbing Self.

After several self-inflicted stab wounds failed to cause his death, Henry Blumfield, twenty, begged a policeman early to-day to shoot him. When an ambulance was called to the Fleetwood garage, No. 1153 Webster Avenue, the Bronx, where the stabbing took place, Blumfield implored the ambulance surgeon to end his suffering by giving him poison. Blumfield is now a prisoner in the Lincoln Hospital charged with attempted suicide.

Blumfield gave the address of Herman Cohen, No. 160 Findley Avenue, declaring that Cohen was his uncle. Cohen could not be located at that address.

YONKERS, CAR RIOTS CONTINUING, WIRES PLEA TO GOVERNOR

Passengers Forcibly Ejected for Refusing Second Fare—O'Neill to Assist Objectors.

Following the forcible ejection of passengers who refused to pay the second fare demanded by the Yonkers Railroad Company and the arrest of one of its so-called "strong-arm men" after a free-for-all fight last night, the citizens carried their trouble to the Governor this morning. They also secured the services of a lawyer, experienced in such cases, to take up their fight. After wiring Gov. Smith, a mass-meeting was called for to-morrow night.

The meeting of the Yonkers Five-Cent Fare Association in the rooms of the Chippewa Club in Lake Avenue was attended by nearly 200 property owners from every ward in the city.

The following resolution was passed shortly after midnight and telegraphed to Gov. Smith at Albany this morning:

"Resolved: That Gov. Alfred E. Smith be requested to direct the Attorney General of the State of New York to bring appropriate legal proceedings to annul the franchise of the Yonkers Railroad Company, or to apply for a mandatory injunction to compel them to give service in accordance with the provisions of their franchise."

Cheers greeted the message from Thomas J. O'Neill of No. 209 Broadway, Manhattan, consenting to take up the legal fight against the railroad company and to appear in court in the interests of all persons assaulted or arrested for refusing to pay the second fare on demand.

Letters were also sent to Mayors Hyman of New York and Wallin of Yonkers, asking them to give police protection to passengers against assaults by alleged employees of the railroad company, carrying concealed weapons.

After calling a mass-meeting for to-morrow night at the rush hour at the Van Courtlandt Park terminus of the subway, the organization was made permanent and the following officers were elected: Alderman Thomas Brogan, Chairman; Frank Haight, Vice Chairman; Miss Sarah McPike, Secretary; Mrs. Frances Sweetney, Treasurer; and Earl Osborn, Financial Secretary. They will raise funds for the five-cent fare fight.

Preceding the meeting there was a riot at Broadway and New Main Street when five of the alleged "strong-arm men" boarded a north-bound Park Avenue car and tried to eject two men upon their refusal to pay the second fare.

A fight started and nearly fifty cars became stalled. Passengers numbering several hundred left these cars and fought to enter the one in which the fight was going on and attack the five railroad employees.

Police reserves were called and with difficulty they succeeded in dispersing the crowd.

Patrick Lee of No. 23 Palisades Avenue was arrested on complaint of Patrick Brogan, brother of Alderman Thomas Brogan of Yonkers, who alleged that Lee was one of five men who assaulted him, cutting his neck. At the police station it developed that Lee was a motorman in plain clothes and employed by the Yonkers Railroad Company. Lee was hauled out by a bonding company an hour or so after his arrest.

Because of the large number of passengers who refuse to pay the extra 5 cent fare demanded by the railroad company for a ride from Getty Square, Yonkers, to the New York Subway terminal at 242d Street, a threat was made by an officer of the company yesterday to stop all cars at the city line.
