Bungalow No. 4, Just Completed at the Corner Hutton and College Avenue.

This new bungalow, owned by Wilson & Neiswanger, at the corner of Hutton and College avenues has just been completed and while it is not on the market for sale, will be open on New Year's day all day and New Year's night so that those interested in the erection of a bungalow or the building of a modern home may call, and are invited to come and look it over. Mr. Chas. W. Whitehair, state college Y. M. C. A. secretary for Kansas, will occupy the house immediately after the New Year's. This bungalow, while similar in some respects to its neighbor which was inspected by so many people about Thanksgiving time, is so entirely different in the interior arrangement and equipment as to be well worth a visit. NORTH SIDE NEWS

Appointed Chief Justice Court of Appeals of B. C. High Office for Mrs. Margaret Richardson's Son-in-Law.

IS J. A. M'DONALD. Leader of Liberal Party in Canadian Parliament.

Other Items of Interest on the North Side.

Word has been received here that J. A. McDonald, the son-in-law of Mrs. Margaret Richardson of 900 Monroe street, has been appointed chief justice of the court of appeals for British Columbia, Canada, with headquarters at Victoria, the capital of British Columbia. He is serving his second term as member of the Canadian parliament from that district and is regarded as one of the leaders in the Liberal party.

He is about 45 years old. Prior to his appointment he had been practicing law at Rossland, Canada. He graduated from the law school of Toronto university about 14 years ago. He was born in Clinton, Ontario, near Detroit, Mich., and received his early education in the schools of Stratford, Ontario. He also learned the foundry trade, working in his father's shops. He helped to make traction engines and other farm machinery while he was attending school in his home town.

Mrs. Richardson came here from Stratford about eight years ago and is well known on the north side. She is the mother of Miss Emma Richardson, who makes her home with her, and of Mrs. Luke Ballard of the South side. Mr. Richardson died in Canada in 1881. Community Comment ON CATS. Generally speaking cats are divided into Toms, Tabbies and kittens, although some thoughtless or ignorant people make no distinction.

Another class of cats are called "Maltese." Some say the name originated from the island on which they were first produced, while others say that the appellation means this race of cats will stand stalling and leaning more than others. At any rate all cats are good natured to a certain extent. However, most of them object seriously to the proximity of dogs. Nevertheless cats are much like dogs only they differ in fur and other respects. But to continue after our digression.

We once had a neighbor's dog who visited our cat. He pawed around under a "boarded" door. He afterwards went blind from a cat-er-act in the eye. Speaking about eyes. The pupils of cats' eyes change dimension with the time of day and are used by heathen Chinese in place of clocks. Cats are also useful as company for unmarried girls who are ambitious to be otherwise.

Speaking about marriage: A superstition is that if a man sees a white cat with blue eyes which is deaf in both ears and then observes a red-headed girl he will either get married or die an old bachelor. The subject of a subject is always a good terminal. Literary Student.—No, "The Count of Monte Christo" is not a romance of a staid life. It merely shows what trouble and sorrow can bring.

A select Topeka party causing a three cornered row. A boy was invited but his sweetest was not. Worse still, the former gave out that he would not be there, but was found guilty. A Topeka woman says she looks in this column every evening with a palpitating heart for fear of "knocks" on her. So much for the hitting qualities of straw shots and the accusing of a new comedy.

A small boy is never satisfied with new shoes unless they squeak loudly. A Topeka girl called on her neighbor about 5:30 o'clock last night, intending to engage her to go to a prayer meeting. A short nap was suggested and followed. Then the neighbor slipped off without waking her company. "Revenge—if it was such—is sweet." A Topeka woman says that no one will ever look as good to her as her first husband. More good for humanity.

A Topeka girl was asked if the ring she wore on a certain finger signified engagement. "No, exactly," was the reply. "But as long as WE can agree I am going to wear it." Notes and Personals. POLICE HAVE BLOOD HOUNDS.

They Are a Gift of ex-Sheriff John Wilkerson.

Six months hence the Topeka police department will be in a position to better cope with the criminal element. Due to the generosity of ex-Sheriff John Wilkerson, who has presented them with a pair of southern blood hounds this will be made possible. Already the hounds have learned to trail the man who keeps and feeds them, and in another month the active training of the dogs will begin.

During the seven short weeks of their lives, the pups have made rapid progress and with the inherent characteristics of their kind can be heard to bay, while confined in the police station, in such tones as their little throats make possible. At the age of three months the real training of the dogs will begin. It is expected that by the time three or four months have elapsed, they will have progressed so far as to be of use in trailing a criminal.

Police authorities here are of the opinion that the future allies of the detectives will be the most valuable adjunct that the department could have. An extraordinary effort will be taken in their care and training. The dogs have been named "Bill" and "Joe," after Detectives Hutton and Wondrously.

FRANK VERDICT STANDS.

Judge Dana overruled a motion to set aside the divorce decree of Edward G. Frank from Madge Frank today, stating that the case had already consumed too much time and that it was in fact that Mrs. Frank, in the collection of her alimony, continually and repeatedly had her husband's wages garnished and hampered him in the payment of his obligations. Also, that he believed the man a good fellow who, thus freed, would make somebody of himself.

NO MARRIAGE LICENSES TODAY.

Probate Judge Says People Are Afraid of Ill Omens.

Marrying people are very superstitious, according to the records at the probate court, where no licenses or marriages were chalked today. Judge Schuch, "but it is mighty seldom we are asked for a license on Friday. They are afraid of Friday and will not take the chance." And if couples are marrying honestly and expect to do so but once, they ought to be mighty careful, or if, as is frequently the case one does not know what sort of a mate one is harnessing up with, then all the more reason why one should be careful to evade any ill omens.
