CARLISLE IS VICTORIOUS

Defeats Yale by Score of 18 to 15.—Princeton Wins

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 11.—Fortune enabled Princeton to defeat Dartmouth in the final period here today, 3 to 0. With the ball on Dartmouth's 30-yard line, Bennett of Princeton made an attempt to dropkick. The ball hit ground fifteen yards from the goal line, but bounced over the cross bar and was called a goal by referee Laidford.

The two elevenes were evenly matched and the result was in doubt until the final whistle. Princeton's defense again saved the day for the Tigers; they succeeded in crossing the visitors' attack at every stage. On the offensive, however, Princeton could do nothing and was unable to gain consistently by straight football.

WILL PROPOSE LONG TO SUCCEED BALFOUR

LONDON, Nov. 10.—At a meeting to be held at the Carlton club Monday, Walter Hume Long will propose, and Austen Chamberlain will second, the nomination of Andrew Bonar Law as the leader of the Unionist party in the house of commons to succeed Arthur J. Balfour.

Mr. Law's election is assured, and the leadership of the party will be placed in the hands of a man who has never held a cabinet seat.
In his short political career, however, Mr. Law has proved himself a brilliant speaker and a resourceful debater. The Liberals acknowledge his fitness to be opposition leader and among all suggested for the position they regard him as the most dangerous.
Mr. Law is sitting for the Bootele-vision, Lancashire Southwest, and is 52 years old.

Unionists consider Mr. Law their most persuasive speaker on tariff reform. He is a strong protectionist. The party will more than ever be committed to tariff reform and expect that his leadership will infuse a strong fighting spirit into their ranks. His selection being a compromise is certain to engender much dissatisfaction and it is impossible to predict how events finally will shape themselves.

CLUB BARS WOMEN FROM ITS DINNERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—San Francisco's Commonwealth club, an influential civic improvement organization has relegated women to the galleries. And this in spite of the fact that the gentler sex now has the right to vote.
After the passage of the franchise amendment it was suggested that women be allowed to attend the club's dinner meetings, but an objection was raised and when a vote was taken it was decided by a vote of 49 to 13 not to extend invitations to women. A concession was made, however, by the decision that women might occupy all gallery seats.

THE FRENCH WINE CROP

The persistent spell of hot weather in France promises a wine harvest average in quantity but excellent in quality. In fact if some rain falls the quality in some districts may prove remarkable.
In the Marne, the home of champagne, the gathering of the grapes is expected to begin on September 10th, from fifteen to twenty days in advance of the usual date, and the wine of 1911 is expected to surpass in delicacy even that of 1893 of famous memory. The Marne's southern neighbor, the Aube, which scorned having its output labelled as champagne of the second zone, is favored with fine grapes, but not a very abundant harvest.
In Burgundy a small harvest will be compensated for by extra quality. In the Yonne department around Chablis about one-third of an average yield is expected; a half around Laroche reports are better and the Beaujolais district is satisfied although the young vines are suffering from the drought. The Mill hopes to gather his grapes at the end of this month. The cochetils has done much harm, but certain parts of the Gard and Herault doubtless will promise magnificent harvests. The Bordeaux district has also suffered greatly from the cochetils, but Bergerac reclaims on a yield three as great as last year. Both Charente departments and the districts round Tours and Saumur report favorably as to the appearance of their vineyards.
As a result of these satisfactory reports from the wine-growing districts wholesale prices have undergone a decided fall, although after the recent poor years very little old wine remains in stock. —New York Sun.

APPEALS TO COURT FOR MERCY

In Judge Howell's division of the District court this morning Lawrence McLean pleaded guilty to forgery and the court announced that sentence would be passed November 14. The information against McLean charged him with forging the name of E. W. Patrick to a check for $15, October 24, 1911.
McLean had no one to represent him, but after pleading guilty to the charge, he handed the judge a communication which he requested be considered against him and a plea for clemency before sentence be pronounced upon him. I will be brief.
"On the evening preceding the day I was arrested, charged with forgery, I had started to drink liquor during the night and the following morning that is all I cared for at the time. In fact, when I was arrested I had in my possession a bottle of liquor, which tends to prove my statement that I had been drinking.
"I am sincerely sorry for my actions of that time and I admit openly, without vulgar bravado, that I committed the offense with which I am charged. I did not at the time just exactly know what I was doing. The money I received from the bank, which was $15, I refunded as soon as I realized what I had done. It was my own right and honest on my part to restore the money, which I did.
"I cannot express in words the torment and anguish and misery I feel over this matter, to think that in the future I will always be under a cloud. I am a stranger in this country and what few friends I had I have lost through my actions. They will always point their finger at me and say I am a convict. To lose all the confidence of friends and relatives back home is punishment that can hardly be overlooked by a person in my present environment, and to know that when I come out of prison there will be no friend to lend a helping hand to aid me in getting employment.
"Your honor, I hope in my heart, that you can be lenient to me and grant me clemency.
"Your honor, this is the first time I have had to appear before a court charged with felony and I promise you that I hold dear in this world that it will be the last in my career. Hoping that you will take this plea under consideration, believe me to be, Most Reverent, "LAWRENCE."
(Signed.)

CONCERNING THE NUMBER NINE.

A recent issue of the New York Sun contains the following communication from one of its correspondents: It is a curious coincidence that 9 was the mystic number of the late King Edward. In the name of "Edward VII" there are six letters and three figures—6 and 3 are 9. His mother, Queen Victoria, was born in 1819. She died in 1901. Her age was 81—9 times 9 are 81. He was one of nine children. He was born on November 9th, 1871. His wife, Alexandra, has nine letters in her name. She was a daughter of the ninth king of Denmark, King Edward came to the throne of England in his 69th year. He was crowned on August 9th and reigned nine years. He died at the age of 69. His funeral procession started at 9 in the morning and he was followed in the grave by nine kings. He won three Derbys—3 times 3 are 9. There are nine letters in the name of Persimmon, the first winner.
Nine is the mystic number of the Orient and also of the ancient Greeks. It is a favorite of writers. According to Pythagoras 9 represents the Deity. Milton writes of the nine enfolded spheres. Macaulay makes Porcena swear by his nine gods. The nacas or sacred serpents of India are 9. Milton says that the gates of hell are 9. He is three threefold and that the fallen angels were nine in number and so was Lucifer when he was kicked out of heaven. There are nine muses of cadency. The hydra had nine heads. If we find nine green peas in a pod it is a lucky. Nine buttons are a sign of official rank in China. Nine tallois make a man and a man has nine lives. Erasmus says that the proper number for a dinner party is not less than three nor more than nine.

SINGERS RECEIVE MUCH ATTENTION

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—One hundred members of the Cliff Dwellers' society of New York attended the afternoon concert of the Salt Lake Singers today. Gilbert McClurg, dean of the club and author of the words of the "Irrigation Ode," gave the soloists beautiful flowers. Horace Esaujan sang a "Colorado" song by special request. Mrs. Edward sang "Pretty Daisy" and "Annie Laurie," scoring a decided hit. Her voice is clear and unaffected by the cold that is fashionable among the chorists.
Professor Stephens said tonight: "There is so much improvement in the work of the choir that the folks at home will not know their own choir. Mr. McClurg did not appear tonight. He is resting and his place at the piano was filled by Mr. Kimball.
At the invitation of Maude Adams, the entire choir and friends will see her latest success, "Chantecler," at the Montauk theater, Brooklyn, Saturday afternoon.
President Stillwell of the land show this evening invited the choir to have supper with him at the Waldorf-Astoria Saturday evening after the concert.

LIKENESS OF BRIGHAM YOUNG APPEARS ON SILVER SERVICE PRESENTED TO BATTLESHIP UTAH IN SPITE OF ANTI-MORMON PROTEST.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—In spite of the protest of the opponents of Mormonism who live in Utah and elsewhere, a likeness of Brigham Young appears on the coffee tray of the silver service presented to the super Dreadnought, Utah, by the people of Utah. The likeness is incidental to a picture of a monument erected in Salt Lake City to the pioneers of Utah. There are 185 pieces in the silver set, making it one of the most complete services ever presented to an American war vessel. It cost $15,000. The prominent features of the decoration are the Utah state seal, emblematic of industry; the great seal of the United States and the seal of the navy department. There are also Utah mining scenes, an overland pioneer ox train, the negro boy, the state flower of Utah, the pioneer monument, surmounted by a statue of Brigham Young, and the spires of the great Mormon temple. The service was displayed on tables standing between the turrets of the big battleship. The silver was covered by an American flag, which was drawn aside by Miss Hazel Dawn, an actress in "The Pink Lady," who in private life is Miss Hazel Tout of Ogden, Utah. The service was presented by Governor Spry of Utah and was accepted on behalf of the officers by Captain W. S. Benson. Senator Reed Smart attended the presentation, and several songs were sung by the Tabernacle choir from Salt Lake City.
