

ROUND-UP OF GUNMEN CONTINUED

Highwaymen Halt Pedestrian, Then Let Him Go as He Yields Nothing

Police Tuesday continued their roundup of persons carrying guns. Oscar Ellis, 22, and Valmer Nordlund, 27, both loggers, are held in city jail on open charges.

They were arrested by Patrolmen B. H. Williams and R. H. Wilson, who say the pair had a pistol, shells and a flashlight.

TWO BABY BANKS REPORTED STOLEN

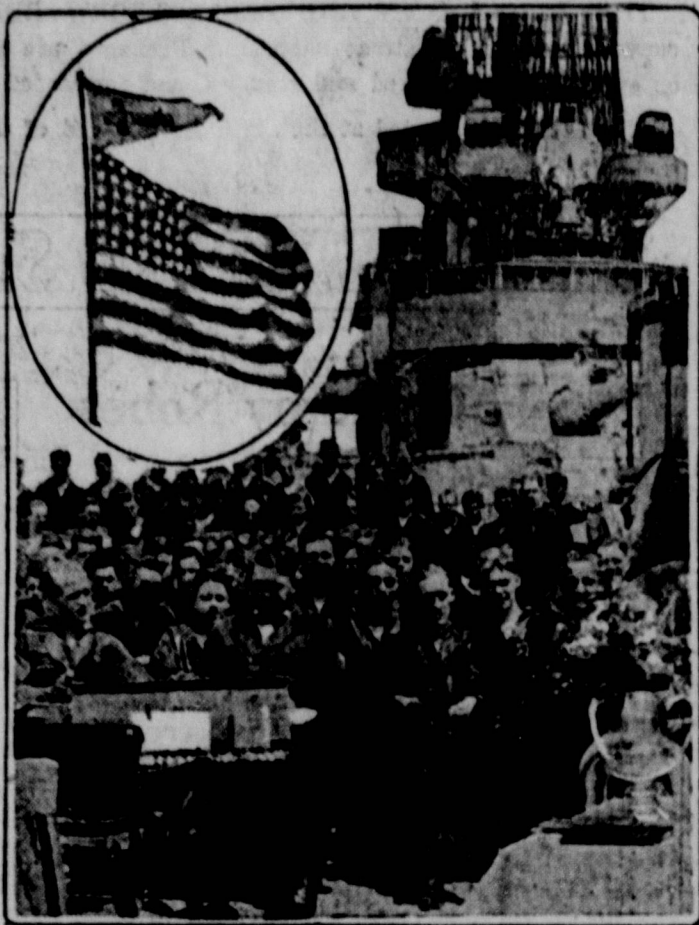

Two banks were stolen, according to reports on file at police station Tuesday. They were of the baby variety.

CAFE IS LOOTED OF CIGARETTES

The cafe of Hence Brookings, 201 Third ave. S., was looted of two cartons of cigarettes.

Four dollars were stolen from the home of Mrs. Sherman, 317 22nd ave. Four suits were taken from Joe Guro's room at 601 Sixth ave. Monday noon. Knives, cook's implements, and a full suitcase were missing from Otto Johnson's room at 1214 First ave. Tuesday. He blames Shlevan.

Navy's Influence Is Good Mothers Need Not Worry

Church service in the shadow of the guns aboard the battleship Arkansas, now at Bremerton, and inact, the church flag, which is the only emblem that ever tops the Stars and Stripes.—Pictures by E. W. Helings.

BY PAUL N. WILSON
If Uncle Sam's "gob" occasionally comes out of service in the navy morally unsound, it can be set down to neglected home training or inherent weakness, not to any lack of proper guidance or environment aboard ship.

For, his church spires are fighting tops and he attends Sunday services under the dreadnaught's frowning guns, the spiritual welfare of the American sailor is one of the most important considerations in the navy.

CHAPLAIN MUST BE REGULAR HE-MAN

Trained to fight, if there is need, and fight superbly—yes! But "hard-boiled" or "calloused" in finer feelings—no! Just a sound, self-respecting average American boy who brings aboard and practices in his daily routine the best the American home has developed.

IS COUNSELOR TO MEN AND OFFICERS

Chaplains of every denomination serve with the fleet, usually one on each ship, always on the large ones, and no matter what the sailor's faith, he can always be sure of attending his services on Sunday. If there is no chaplain on board a ship of a given faith, a church party is sent to another vessel.

The duties of the chaplain vary from that of athletic, morale and entertainment officer to welfare and general adviser. He spends more time "forward" than he does "aft." He is usually an all-around athlete, and familiarizes himself with everything on the ship; he referees boxing bouts; umpires baseball and football games; furnishes recreation and swimming parties.

THE KIND OF MAN THE GOBS ADMIRE

They told me a story on the Arkansas of a navy chaplain who was on duty with the marines in France. Just before the marines went over the top, the chaplain stepped upon the brink of a trench, heedless of exposure to machine gun fire, faced the enemy, and cried:

"Ego te absolvo!" Then, turning to the marines, he said: "Now, boys, I've absolved them, of their sins; go over and get them before they commit any more!" That's the kind of man to whom the navy department has entrusted the spiritual welfare of Tom and John and Harry, whose mothers often worry about the influence the navy is going to have on their sons.

BOY RUNS AWAY WITH AN AUTO

Takes Stepfather's Car and Money

Alleged to have stolen $25.25 from his stepfather's trouser pocket last night and then to have stolen his auto, James Harold Smith, 16, who is still in knee trousers, was being sought by local police and deputy sheriffs of Western Washington today.

E. K. Riechard, 7144 44th ave. S. W., the stepfather, reported the alleged thefts to police Tuesday morning.

The auto's gas tank was full and Riechard thinks the boy may flee toward California.

Desire for excitement and adventure are the only known reasons for James' actions.

CHICAGO CHIEF OPENS CLEANUP

BY EDWARD M. THIERRY
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The new fashion of putting newspaper men in places of power—Cristanston, President-elect Harding—has been tried in the Chicago police department.

Chicago has had chiefs of police who were politicians, professional policemen and soldiers. Now a newspaperman, Charles C. Fitzmorris, at the age of 36, has the job of doing what the others failed to do—clean up crime.

FITZ IS TO BE NO RUBBER STAMP

"If things aren't rubber-stamped and Charlie Fitzmorris starts to clean up on crime," said a newspaper man who knew him when he started as a copy boy 20 years ago, "he'll make a thorough job of it."

Mayer Thompson says Fitz is not a rubber stamp. In naming him the mayor conferred "absolute authority," and added: "No one is authorized to speak for me or ask you anything in my name."

Fitz is going ahead on that basis. He has started to be a "go-getter." First he "got" a few men on the force by transferring $20 to new fields. Eight days after he took office he personally went out with a gun, captured two bank robbery suspects and recovered $4,687 in loot.

AX FALLS ON POLICE HEADS

Here are some other things he did before he was a month old as chief.

Deposed Detective Chief J. L. Mooney and made Lieutenant Michael Hughes chief.

Started to draft new anti-robbery laws, chief of which is a law making robbery with a gun punishable by imprisonment for life.

Initiated suspending delinquent policemen instead of using the red tape and whitewash of trial board charges.

Punished six policemen who let a wounded bandit escape from a hospital by suspending them so each loses $150 pay.

Initiated gambling raids that brought 462 arrests in one night.

Planned motorcycle squad to check clockwork regularity of Saturday payroll robberies.

Drafted plan for merit system—merit marks for good work and demerits for every crime committed from district captain down to patrolman.

The young police chief is short, stocky, boyishly young and has a smile and a twinkling eye, and a firm hand with a kid glove touch.

WANTS MORE PAY FOR HIS COYS

"I don't believe in talking much," he says. "I believe in doing things. I'm willing to co-operate with anybody who can help the police department."

"My policy is: First, get the police to work; second, see they are better paid; third, demonstrate the need of more police—and get them."

In 1900 Fitzmorris, in a newspaper content for boys, broke the world's record on a trip around the world. He showed such political strategy in Carter Harrison's campaign for mayor that Harrison made him his secretary in 1911. Tho a democrat, he was retained when Thompson became mayor in 1915.

Chief Fitzmorris has a wife and three children. His salary is $8,000. Mayor Thompson says he is "a bird of a chief"—sure to be disliked in other cities because "crooks are getting out of Chicago while the going is good."

SAMOAN PROBE EVIDENCE IN

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—Maj. R. V. Creech arrived today from the Samoan islands and left immediately for Washington, carrying with him the findings of the board of inquiry which investigated conditions in Samoa, and which tried Commander C. H. Bolcher, who had been a subordinate of Commander W. J. Terhune, dead governor of the island.

Bolcher was the man who placed the charges of misgovernment against Terhune which preceded Terhune's suicide. Bolcher was said to have acted as the spokesman of 109 Samoan native chiefs, who claimed their people were mistreated.

Has Clover That Is Ten Feet High

AMES, Iowa, Dec. 14.—Clover ten feet high has been grown by C. E. Honkomp, of Ashton, Iowa, from seed discovered by accident by the Iowa State Agricultural college in 1916, and developed there for distribution. Another Iowa man who grew clover from the same seed had stalks nine feet tall, that had to be propped up to keep them from breaking with the weight of blossoms and bees.

He Sentences Kids to Sunday School

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Dec. 14.—Five boys found guilty of tearing down a stone wall and rolling the stones into the street, are considered appealing from the sentence inflicted by Judge A. J. Herrod as being cruel and unusual punishment. "I sentence the five of you to Sunday school," ordered the judge: "Bring me a letter from the pastor of whatever church you go to, saying you have attended Sunday school, or there'll be some rough sledding ahead of you."

SEATTLE WOMAN COULDN'T RAISE HANDS TO HEAD

After Suffering Eight Years Tanlac Overcame Seattle Woman's Troubles

"It makes me so happy to see how perfectly my health is being restored I just want to tell everybody about Tanlac," said Mrs. Mary Masoro, 1195 Hiawatha St., Seattle, recently.

"For the past eight years I had been gradually going down hill. My stomach was out of order. I had terrible pains in my arms and often had most awful headaches. Altogether I got in a mighty bad fix.

"My appetite was very poor, and what little I did eat fermented and gave me an awful stuffed up feeling, and caused me so much pain I could hardly endure it. It seemed that nothing I ate would digest properly.

"My arms hurt so bad I couldn't raise my hands high enough to comb my hair, and most of the time I could scarcely use my hands for anything. I was very weak, too, and just couldn't do my housework.

"Often I had such severe headaches and dizzy spells I had to stay in bed for days. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep, and always felt tired and worn out.

"Well, I read so much about Tanlac in the papers I finally decided it might help me and bought a bottle. This first bottle did me so much good I got another and kept on taking it.

"I have a fine appetite now and eat anything I want, and as much as I please, and it agrees with me perfectly. I have gained a lot of strength, am free of those awful headaches and dizzy spells, and feel better in every way.

"My arms are much better. It doesn't hurt me to raise them now to comb my hair, and they are so much stronger I can do some of my housework. I just want to tell everybody Tanlac is the best medicine for troubles like mine I have ever seen or heard of."

Tanlac is sold in Seattle by Bartell Drug Stores under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advertisement.
