RURAL SANITATION LECTURES AT U. A. C. ATTRACT MUCH ATTENTION

Dr. C. G. Plummer of Salt Lake Discusses "Commercial Health." Will Fill Tenth Number of the Course Today Subject "New Spirit of Medicine."

Dr. C. G. Plummer of Salt Lake City gave the seventh number in the series of lectures on Rural Sanitation which are being conducted under the auspices of the Utah Agricultural College, before an audience that filled the large chapel at the College yesterday. The subject of Dr. Plummer's talk was "Commercial Health."

Dr. Plummer is without doubt one of the most eminent physicians in the state and his remarks throughout were listened to with keen interest by all.

Disease, according to Dr. Plummer is purely the fault of wrong living. The doctor took up the various divisions of human defectiveness, dividing them into the three classes, those known as defective, insane and congenitally wrong. He elucidated the difference between the idiot, the imbecile, speaking of the factors which entered into the determination of each condition and also took up the various causes of disease. Disease was said to be attributable to three factors, fatigue, bacteria and bad habits. Effecting these were diet, heat and humidity. The talk throughout was of a highly instructive nature and concluded with a severe exhortation of tobacco, drugs, alcohols, etc.

Dr. Plummer will deliver another lecture at the College chapel this afternoon, taking for his subject the "New Spirit of Medicine." This lecture is highly educational in its nature and elucidates the wonderful progress which the present practice of medicine and the various phases of mental suggestion and the cooperation of the individual with the physician in combating disease, together with the elimination of medicine, will form the subject matter of the lecture.

These lectures are open to the general public and it is expected that a splendid representation of Logan people will be at the college this afternoon.

It may not be generally understood that this series of lectures on Rural Sanitation and related subjects are open to the general public, and the college officials are desirous of having as large an attendance as possible. Next Friday, November 15, Professor Jakob Bollin of the University of Utah will lecture on the "Ideal of Physical Training." Professor Bollin is one of the best authorities in the United States on this particular subject and his lecture is sure to prove of inestimable benefit. Saturday, November 16, Prof. Bollin will lecture on the "Nature of Health." Other lectures have been arranged which will continue each Friday and Saturday until February 1.

TO REFUND WATER WORKS BONDS

The city commissioners met Thursday evening and made the regular monthly appropriations. Larsen and Gardner appeared and asked for a refund of $11.25 on a license granted for conducting a feed stable on South Main street. This was denied.

Moses Thatcher, William Bowen, and Robert Murdock met and protested against the present water meter rates. The matter was referred to Commissioner G. W. Lindquist to determine the policy of other cities regarding water meter charges.

The revised ordinances of Logan City passed and will go into effect on December 2. The recorder was authorized to have them published in pamphlet form.

A five year contract was made with the Logan, Hyde Park and Smithfield canal for furnishing water to the city from their canal. The contract formerly had was for twenty years.

As the Water Works Bond for $40,000 falls due on December 31, 1912 and as there is no funds for which to pay them off, it was decided to advertise for bids and re-issue bonds and secure funds for which to pay the ones which fall due.

LOGAN MAY GET ANOTHER BANK

Rumor has it that a number of prominent citizens of the city are preparing to make application to the state for a charter to open a bank in this city. It was impossible to get the name of the promoter of the new enterprise although a number of citizens were approached on the matter. The corner building at the intersection of Main and Center streets now occupied by the Carlisle barber shop is said to be the one looked to as the location of the business. Names of parties connected with the movement as rumor has it are withheld they deny having any connection whatever when asked regarding the matter.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

George Y. Smith, cashier of the Smithfield bank, was seen hustling about the town yesterday afternoon.

Funeral services over the remains of Mr. Knud Peterson were held in the Fifth ward chapel at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd attended the services. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful. The music was furnished by the ward choir and Mr. A. J. Hansen rendered a solo. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Erasmus Larsen. Words of consolation were offered by the following: E. T. Pulley, Peter Nelson, Hugu Adams, Christian Larsen and Bishop Adams, C. L. Olsen, offered the benediction. A long cortege followed the remains to its last resting place in the Logan cemetery. Elder Christian Larsen dedicated the grave.

Battleship Arkansas, Mightiest In World; Interesting View of Life on Board Her.

Photos by American Press Association.

Of all the ships in the great fleet that was assembled in the Hudson river at New York for review by President Taft perhaps none attracted more attention than the Arkansas, which, with her sister ship the Wyoming, is the mightiest battleship in the world in point of size and armament. Her displacement is 26,000 tons. There are two twelve-inch turrets forward and four more on the afterdeck, which means that she carries twelve twelve-inch guns. The projectiles the Arkansas could fire at a single broadside would weigh approximately 10,200 pounds.

FOREIGN PRESS ON U. S. ELECTION

Germany Regards Result As a Most Fortunate Occurrence—English Praise Wilson

Berlin, Nov. 6.—The election of Woodrow Wilson is regarded generally by the German press as a most fortunate occurrence for Germany. The newspapers say that it gives promise of a reduction of the tariff which has crippled the German export trade and also of the abandonment of the policy the tariff "pin pricks," such as those connected with paper pulp and principles over which German relations have suffered.

All the journals, however, warn the German commercial world against expecting too much from the Democrats in this respect and point out that the Democratic party will be quite as responsive to the protection of American interests as the Republican party.

English Press Praises Wilson

London, Nov. 6.—The presidential election resulted much as had been anticipated in Great Britain.

The evening newspapers today all speak very highly of Woodrow Wilson and his policies. The free trade Westminster Gazette says:

The people of the United States are clearly ripe for new men and new measures, and adds:

"Tired of their professional politicians, the American people have decided to give a new man a trial; so a learned historian and former college principal walks into the White House. Most heartily we wish success to this experiment with a philosopher king being made in the most unlikely quarter in the world. From our own experience with university men in politics, we are encouraged to hope that he will prove as shrewd and practical as any of the old stagers in American politics."

Theodore Roosevelt's position in the poll, according to the Westminster Gazette, justifies his incursion into the arena while President Taft will get sympathy owing to the circumstances which set him up as the candidate of a divided party and with the strongest personality in the country disputing his claim.

The Evening Standard says:

"Woodrow Wilson will command confidence in his own country and in the world outside. He is a public man of a much higher type than some of those who have occupied the White House. The Democrats did a good stroke of business for their party when they chose him. They had the sense to see that the great body of respectable citizens of the United States were heartily tired of the sordid squabbles of the party managers with the accompanying intrigues and self seeking."

The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"The promotion of Woodrow Wilson to the Democratic leadership and the evolution of Theodore Roosevelt as the head of a new party are in reality two symptoms of the same force—the intense wish of the better elements in America for the blessings of honorable government. It is a sign of health in the nation that the real contest could be between the two men who are much superior in character and outlook to the common political level."

A delightful affair in the nature of a surprise party on Mrs. John A. Broberg who recently retired from the leadership of the Seventh ward choir was given by the choir at the home of Bishop Lewis A. Merrill last night. The evening was spent in games dispersed with readings and songs. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a ring to Mrs. Broberg as an evidence of the esteem in which she is held.

ADRIANOPLE IS SURRENDERED

London, Nov. 7.—The Turks have been driven in disorder from the Tchatalja forts and the Bulgarians now have practically a clear road into Constantinople. Sofia dispatches tonight convey this history making news.

Some of the most severe fighting of the war attended this final defeat of the Turkish troops. The battle lasted for two days. A hand to hand struggle ensued before the Bulgarians beat down the desperate defenders and poured through breaches in the defense made by their artillery. Then the Turks broke and fled. They are now reported to be in confused and disorganized retreat upon the capital.

Panic in Capital

Panic has broken out in Constantinople. At the demand of the foreign ambassadors, intrenchments are being thrown up at San Stefano and Kiatkane to check the mob of soldiers who are fleeing toward the city.

So threatening has the situation become that the powers are considering the advisability of forcing the Bulgarians with their waiting fleets so that the 6000 men on these ships will be available for landing when the expected sacking of the city begins. In this event reinforcements from the Russian fleet in the Black sea will also be called upon to assist in saving life and property.

Occupy Villages

Before the Bulgarians forced the Tchatalja forts half a dozen villages in the vicinity of this last line of defense were occupied by them.

The dispatches say that the Turks fought with fanatical fury as if the eye of Allah was upon them in their last defense of the holy city of Mohammed. Acts of unparalleled bravery

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Pres. Taft Issues One Setting Apart November 28th as Day For Rendering Thanks

Washington, Nov. 7.—Pres. Taft today issued a proclamation setting aside November 28 as Thanksgiving day.

The proclamation follows: "By the president of the United States.

"A proclamation: "A God-fearing nation like ours, owes it to its inborn and sincere sense of moral duty to testify its devout gratitude to the All-giver for the countless benefits it has enjoyed. For many years it has been customary at the close of the year for the national executive to urge upon his fellow countrymen to offer praise and thanks to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed to them in the past and to unite in earnest supplication for their continuation.

"The year now drawing to a close has been notably favorable to our fortunate land. At peace within and without, free from the perturbations and calamities from the afflicted other people's rich in harvests so abundant and industries so productive that the overflow of our prosperity has advantaged the whole world, strong in the steadfast conservation of the heritage of self-government bequeathed to us by the wisdom of our fathers, and firm in the resolve to transmit that heritage unimpaired but rather improved by good use, to our children and our children's children for all time to come, the people of this country have abounding cause for contented gratitude.

"Wherefore, I, William Howard Taft, president of the United States of America in pursuance of long established usage and in response to the wish of the American people, invite my countrymen wheresoever they may sojourn to join on Thursday the 28th day of this month of November, in appropriate ascription of praise and thanks to God for the good gifts that have been our portion and in humble prayer that his great mercies toward us may endure."

TAXES COME DELINQUENT NOV. 15

On the 15th of November all state county and city general taxes become delinquent and if not paid on or before that date, under the law the property will be advertised and sold to pay the tax. To advertise delinquent taxes costs money, and this expense has to be paid by the person whose property is advertised. Philo W. Austin, county treasurer, urges upon all persons to remit their taxes at as early a date as possible and avoid the unnecessary expense.

A surprise party was given on Thursday evening by the family of J. Z. Stewart in honor of Mr. Stewart, it being the 69th anniversary of his birth. Twenty guests were present. The evening's entertainment consisted of music, with refreshments served.
