GERMANY'S ROYAL FAMILY WAITS ON WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Princess Marie and Princess Juliane of Germany are officiating at a small party given to a number of young soldiers who have recently recovered from wounds. All the injured are young men, and most of the soldiers are mere youths.

THE BURIED BEARERS - 42 BULLETS HINTED ON Pulicily LOADED STREETS!

Mourners at the funeral of one of Chinatown's leading merchants. Only a few of the old-time Chinese men in the Forget-Me-Not colony were able to follow the body of Young [illegible] in the grave yesterday. The unusual expression on the coffin is that replacing those of the old school.

LIGHT-GIVERS TO THOSE BLIND ED IN BATTLE

At the extreme left is Miss Kathie Cleveland. Next to her is Miss Winifred Holley, and at the right Miss Bernard Grant. They appear at the new volunteer flares in France.

This view of New York's skyline shows the U. S. S. New York, crossing the East River on its way to open music at Hamilton Square. The photograph, taken from the Brooklyn side of the Brooklyn Bridge, shows, at the extreme left, the Brooklyn's Twin Building, then the new Equitable Building, the Singer Building, the Park Row Building, the Woolworth Building, and at the extreme right the New York World Building.
