

BULGARS TO YIELD

CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE WILL BE ADOPTED TO ASSURE ARMISTICE.

MYTILENE TAKEN BY GREEKS

Battle is Renewed at Tchatalja Lines—Ottoman Council Bows to Moslem Law that No Possession Shall Be Abandoned—Warship Damaged.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 23.—Indications are that Bulgaria will adopt a conciliatory attitude and will modify the conditions originally offered to the Turkish government.

A special meeting of the Bulgarian cabinet was held to consider the rejection by Turkey of the terms of the proposed armistice. At its conclusion it was declared in well informed circles that an immediate resumption of hostilities was improbable.

Hope of Armistice Remains. London, England, Nov. 23.—"Come and take them"—was the defiant reply of the Turks to the demand by the allied Balkan nations for evacuation of the line of fortifications at Tchatalja, in front of Constantinople—is not believed in diplomatic circles necessarily to mean the end of the negotiations for an armistice, though fighting has been resumed.

From Sofia comes word that the victorious invaders may modify their conditions. The European powers are exerting themselves to induce the nations composing the Balkan league to bring their terms more into line with the facts of the situation and to arrange a treaty which will give them all they have conquered, but will leave out that which has not been conquered.

Turks Consider Position Favorable. Compared with its earlier disastrous experiences, the Turkish army evidently considers itself in a favorable position. Military experts here see in the at least temporary failure of the Bulgarian rush into Constantinople signs of a reaction among the invaders after their sustained efforts of the last month.

As the Ottoman capital, even if captured, must be evacuated ultimately in accordance with the decree of the great powers, it appears that the allies have nothing to gain by insisting on the surrender of the lines which form virtually the gates of the city. Hence the hope expressed by diplomats that this demand will be withdrawn, in which case it is believed that Turkey, recognizing that she has no prospect of taking the offensive for the recovery of her lost territory would decide quickly that she has nothing to gain by continuing the conflict. She would consent, perhaps, to enter negotiations on the basis of a surrender of all but a reasonable strip at the back of Constantinople, the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

Island of Mytilene Taken. Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 23.—It is reported that a Greek squadron has landed troops and taken possession of the island of Mytilene.

Fighting is Renewed. Constantinople, Turkey, Nov. 23.—The battle at the Tchatalja lines has been resumed. Cannonading was reopened with great violence, and is plainly audible here.

Why Terms Were Refused. London, England, Nov. 23.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Telegram explains that the Moslem law provides that no part of the khalf's possessions shall be abandoned except in cases of "irresistible compulsion." The council's rejection of the Bulgarian terms was based on this law and was suggested by the successful resistance the Turks have made at Tchatalja.

The Experience of Two Girls Here Related For The Benefit of Others.

Rochester, N. Y.—"I have a daughter 13 years old who has always been very healthy until recently when she complained of dizziness and cramps every month, so bad that I would have to keep her home from school and put her to bed to get relief."

"After giving her only two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she is now enjoying the best of health. I cannot praise your Compound too highly. I want every good mother to read what your medicine has done for my child."—Mrs. RICHARD N. DUNHAM, 311 Exchange St., Rochester, N. Y.

Stoutsville, Ohio.—"I suffered from headaches, backache and was very irregular. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken the whole of two bottles I found relief. I am only sixteen years old, but I have better health than for two or three years. I cannot express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had taken other medicines but did not find relief."—Miss CORA E. FOSNAUGH, Stoutsville, Ohio, R.F.D., No. 1.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for their daughters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

spontaneous, believe the struggle will be prolonged unless the allies land troops in the Gulf of Saros, which is considered not improbable.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail in a late dispatch says an attack from the rear on the Dardanelles forts, with the co-operation of the Greek fleet, trying to force the straits, seems imminent. The sudden and unexpected breaking of peace measures has been marked by a renewal of distant cannonading, heard from the hills of Constantinople.

Turk Battleship Sinking. Constantinople, Nov. 23.—With the water pouring into her hold from several big holes beneath the water line, the Turkish battleship Mesudiyeh was towed in a sinking condition, stern first, into the Golden Horn.

Although government officials vouchsafed no information it was believed that the battleship had been attacked by a flotilla of Bulgarian torpedo boats.

SCHRANK IS INSANE

AIMED AT THIRD TERM, HE TELLS EXPERTS, AND NOT AT ROOSEVELT AS PARTY CHIEF.

HOPES HE AWAKE NATION

Unanimous Verdict of Alienists Given at Milwaukee Contains Several Thousand Words—Colonel's Assassin Says He Does Not Fear Death.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 23.—The commission of alienists investigating the mental condition of John Schrank reported unanimously that the assailant of Colonel Roosevelt is insane.

The conclusions reached by the commission are as follows: "John Schrank is suffering from insane delusion, grandiose in character and of a systematized variety. In our opinion he is insane at the present time. On account of the connection existing between his delusions and the act with which he stands charged we are of the opinion he is unable to confer intelligently with counsel on the conduct of his defense."

Schrank was committed to the state hospital for the criminal insane at Oshkosh by Judge Backus.

Prisoner Listens Intently. The prisoner listened intently to the report of the commission of alienists, which was read by the chairman, Dr. Richard Dewey. The report consisted of several thousand words and started by setting forth the personal and family history of the defendant. It contains a long statement to Chief of Police Janssen on the day following Schrank's arrest. The concluding part consists of a lengthy address by which he apologized for causing unpleasantness in asking them to pass a verdict on a case which should have been tried by a higher than an earthy court. He went on to review the delusions, with which he claimed to have looked into the dying eyes of the late President McKinley and added:

"When a voice called to me to avenge his death I was confident that my life was coming soon to an end and I was at once happy to know that my real mission on this earth was to die for my country and the cause of republicanism."

Aimed at the Third Term. "The shot at Milwaukee which created an echo in all parts of the world was not a shot fired at the citizen Roosevelt, not a shot at an ex-president, not a shot at the candidate of a so-called progressive party, not a shot to influence the pending election, not a shot to gain for me notoriety; no, it was simply to establish once and forever the fact that any man who hereafter aspired to a third presidential term will do so at the risk of his life. If I cannot defend tradition, I cannot defend the country in case of war; you may as well send every patriot to prison.

"I hope that the shot at Milwaukee has awakened the patriotism of the American nation, that it has opened their eyes to the real danger and shown them the only safe way out of it, as is proved by the election returns in the great Democratic party.

Has No Fear of Death. "I have been accused of having selected a state where capital punishment is abolished. I would say I did not know the laws of any state I traveled through, and it would be ridiculous for me to fear death after the act, as I expected to die during the act and not live to tell the story. If I knew that my death would have made the third term tradition more sacred I am sorry I could not die for my country.

"Prison for me is like going to war. Before me is the spirit of George Washington; behind me that of McKinley."

Impugning Editor to Be Placed on Trial for Libel on That Date—Error is Discovered.

Marquette, Mich., Nov. 23.—The trial of George A. Newett, an editor of Impugning, charged with criminal libel on complaint of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, will take place in the court of Justice Samuel E. Byrne in this city. The date fixed is November 26. It is not probably, however, that anything more than the arraignment of the defendant will be accomplished at this time.

This new turn in the proceedings is a result of an error in considering criminal libel a misdemeanor under the common law, whereas it is merely the violation of an ordinance, the maximum penalty for which is a fine of $100 or imprisonment for 90 days.
