

Super-Dreadnought New York----Largest Warship in World, Recently Launched, Now is Ready for Action

Men on Battleships Prepare for Action

On Board Dreadnought Arkansas by Wireless to Key West, Florida, April 21

The crews of the eight battleships which are sailing as a fleet for Tampico under command of Rear-Admiral Charles J. Badger, devoted their time yesterday to practice with small arms and to sighting of the big guns of the ships. Officers of the ships devoted themselves to the study of the details of a possible landing of forces at Tampico and Veracruz.

David D. Warfield, Secretary of the Navy, yesterday ordered his War Department to issue a general call for seamen for the United States Navy, to be ready for duty at any time.
