House Stirred by Tribute to the Fighting Spirit of "Boy Seamen."

CAN PUT TRUST IN NAVY

Patriotic Outburst Greeted Eulogy of Tars When Merrimac Hero Recalls Former Feats.

An eulogy of the "plain private" in the American navy... House stirred by tribute to the fighting spirit of "boy seamen."

Such men as Representative Butler, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Davis, of Minnesota, who have sons in the navy...

Tells of Sinking the Merrimac. Another speaker had just mentioned with a note of sadness in his voice that already American blood had been shed on Mexican soil.

Mr. Hobson told how 1,000 men responded when Admiral Sampson called for seven volunteers to assist in sinking the Merrimac as a means of "betting up" the Spanish fleet in Santiago Harbor.

He told how these men obeyed orders to the last as the Merrimac sank into the water that lay the shores of Cuba, and how at a time when it looked as if the eight men would be executed by the Spaniards...

PRESIDENT WILL WATCH CARRANZA

Wants to Determine How Far He May Be Able to Rely on Rebels.

PROVES "DARK HORSE"

Another Reason for Halting Fighting Is to Ascertain Attitude of Huerta.

Having taken possession of Vera Cruz, there will be no new movement against Mexico for several days.

This breathing spell has been ordered for two reasons. President Wilson first wants to determine how far he may rely upon Carranza and Villa.

Attitude of Huerta. The other purpose was to ascertain the attitude of Huerta. If Huerta shows any disposition to yield, there is no doubt that the Mexican incident would be closed.

Those who know Huerta are certain that he will be more defiant now than ever, and that President Wilson will not be able to halt at less than sending an army into Mexico City.

It is Carranza's attitude that is now giving the administration concern. Secretary Bryan and others were disposed to find encouragement in some features of Carranza's communication to the State Department.

With this accomplished, the President and his advisers had hoped to cease aggressive operations by sapping the strength of Huerta through cutting off his ammunition and revenues.

World Sp Herria's Strength. The plan of the United States has been to seize Vera Cruz first, and give Huerta time in which to meet the demands of this government.

MORE SHIPS ON WAY TO MEXICO

Re-enforcements Ordered to Join Fleets on East and West Coasts.

OTHERS HAVE ARRIVED

Naval Forces at Vera Cruz, Increased by Torpedo Flotilla, Number Nineteen Vessels in All.

The Navy Department continues to add to the formidable fleet of war vessels now gathered in Mexican waters. Secretary Daniels yesterday ordered four more battleships and four torpedo destroyers to proceed at once as reinforcements to the American vessels already on the east and west coasts of the southern republic.

Situation on West Coast. The most interesting phase of the naval orders yesterday was the movement of vessels on the Pacific Coast. For several days, the Navy Department has been increasing the strength of the United States fleet on the west coast of Mexico.

MRS. WAKEFIELD AWAITS TRIAL

Hartford, Conn., April 22.—Mrs. Beatie Wakefield, who has been in the State prison at Wethersfield for six months, awaiting trial for the murder of her husband, who last week was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, was taken to New Haven this afternoon. James Fiew, who actually killed the woman's husband, William O. Wakefield, was hanged March 4.

BLEASE MAY LEAD TROOPS.

Spartanburg, S. C., April 22.—If any South Carolina troops are ordered to the front, I, as commander-in-chief, will lead them in person, said Gov. Cole Blaise tonight. He said he could mobilize 1,500 troops within twenty-four hours.

SAY HUERTA PLANNED INSULT TO BRING WAR

Mr. Wilson Convinced Mexican Ruler Delayed Answer to Let Guns Reach Vera Cruz.

FEARED DEFEAT BY REBELS

President Wilson is convinced that Gen. Huerta planned the insult to the American flag at Tampico with the express purpose of bringing on a war with the United States. He believes also that the Mexican ruler deliberately prolonged the negotiations with Charles O'Dougherty in order to give time for the arrival of the guns and ammunition on the German liner at Vera Cruz, which he had purchased from Schneider & Co. of Paris, France.

any other society desiring to render similar assistance can do so only through the American National Red Cross.

"Immediate preparations for fulfilling these duties are imperative. The War Relief Board meets Thursday to adopt a definite plan of action. This will involve heavy expenditures, and the Red Cross relies upon the public for generous contributions to enable it to meet these demands. Contributions may be sent to local and State treasurers or to the Red Cross, Washington, D. C."

Medical Department's Plans. The Medical Department is actively at work preparing for the care of the sick and injured, not alone of our own, but of the enemy as well, as demanded by the Geneva convention.

"The naval organization for the ships and landing parties is complete in all regards, and steps for the care of the sick and wounded and for sanitation and the preservation of health ashore are being taken in conjunction with the Public Health Service and Red Cross organization."

"It is the intention to bring the remains of all naval dead to the United States at the earliest opportunity, dependent upon the circumstances and location attending the fatalities, and to either forward them to the next of kin or to make final interment in a national cemetery, as may be desired by the families of the deceased. All expenses of transportation of the dead will be defrayed by the United States."

In New York City during the last year there were 32 automobile fatalities, of which 18 were children.
