

DAILY GRAPHIC REVIEW OF NEWS EVENTS

SHOTS THAT HIT ARE SHOTS THAT COUNT.—Super-dreadnought Oklahoma (left), of Pacific fleet, firing salvo of ten 14-inch guns at target ten miles away. At right, targets show American gunners are still best in world, despite shortage of personnel and strict economy forced by Congress. (Official U. S. Photograph. Supplied by International News Reel.)

NEW AND INTIMATE PORTRAIT of young Shah of Persia taken at races at Deauville, France, where some of his parties have attracted international attention. (Int'l News Reel.)

ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTENDED MARRIAGE here caused Ellis Island immigration officials to hold Viscountess de Bédouville (above) charming scion of old French family. She is married, but expects to get divorce in October. Robert Grant, Ardmore (Pa.) golfer, says he is husband-to-be. (N. Y. A.)

GERALD PATERSON is Australia's mainstay in challenging American holders for Davis cup, emblematic of world's tennis championship. (Int'l News Reel.)

IN ACCORDANCE WITH DISARMAMENT TREATY workmen in Philadelphia are shown (above), tearing armor plate off U. S. S. Maine. (Int'l News Reel.)

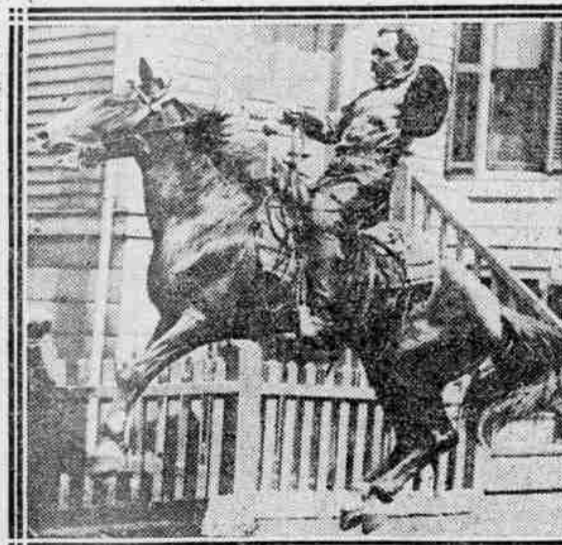

SPLENDID ACTION PICTURE OF "WHISKAWAY" acknowledged three-year-old champion. Harry Payne Whitney sold him to Charles W. Clark, son of former Senator from Montana, for $125,000, next largest sum ever paid for American horse. (Int'l News Reel.)

VICTIM OF POISON PEN—Mrs. Onézine de Bouchelle (above) New Orleans beauty, who is to wed Asa G. Candler, Atlanta Coca-Cola multimillionaire, has been attacked in anonymous letters that have aroused Southern society. (Int'l News Reel.)

PRETTY MURIEL OESTRICH BRADY (above) motion picture actress, inherits $50,000 estate of mother, Mrs. Miriam Oestrich, who died in Albany, N. Y. (N. Y. A.)

GEORGE MORIN (above), Wyoming cowpuncher, hadn't seen sister in Boston for thirteen years, so he mounted "Skeeters," his pet pinto, and rode to Hub. (Int'l News Reel.)

MARIE, QUEEN OF ROMANIA, "mother-in-law of Balkans," wore this magnificent cape at wedding of her daughter to King of Serbia. (Int'l News Reel.)

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN TWO LOCOMOTIVES CRASH HEAD-ON—As attraction at Central States Fair, Aurora, Ill., two engines were sent together at full speed (right). There was a tremendous roar and clouds of steam, but both engines remained on track.

FRAUD WAS CHARGED by Mrs. Eileen Flaven Gardner, former "Follies" beauty, who caused arrest of two men in Sacramento, Cal., alleging $30,000 loss in furniture deal. (N. Y. A.)

CHARLES M. HATFIELD, "RAIN-MAKER," (right) is now in Naples, Italy, trying to end drought.

