NOTES: (1) 0800, 80 hand working party and 6 PO's report to Dunn, SK3c at Commissary Issuing Room.
(2) If our daily fresh water expenditure can be kept down to 35,000 gallons per day, we shall probably be able to operate without water hours.

Yesterday we used..... 40,396 gallons.

(3) At 1633, 15 November 1943, the U.S.S. NEW MEXICO officially crossed the Equator. All Pollywogs are hereby welcomed into the Domain of the Royal Order of the Deep. King Neptune regrets that he was unable to have his Mermaids, Scorpions, and Sea Serpents to meet and escort you into his Domain. However, they, along with the U.S. Navy, are all busily engaged in seeking out and exterminating the enemy. /s/ King Neptune, Royal Ruler of the Deep/

Commander, U.S. Navy,
Executive Officer

SAVE YOUR PAY THE WAR BOND WAY

HI, ELMER!!!!

Believe it or not - the first two (2) men to sign WAR BOND ALLOTMENTS were Lt.(jg)ELMER Bryan and Ensign ELMER Contry.

Officers of the Wardroom have challenged the J. O. Mess that they will have a greater porcentago of WAR BOND BUYERS - with GEEDUNKS for winners and it looks like a nip and tuck affair.

" B E E R f o r B O N D S "

The War Bond Officer is pleased to announce that an old-fashioned beer party, steak fry, picnic and ball game will be given - free and without cost - to that Division which distinguishes itself by having the largest porcentago of WAR BOND ALLOTMENTS. Imagine being so richly rewarded just for saving your money.

The runner-up Division will be served free GEEDUNKS - delicious, creamy, huge helpings - direct from our own famous soda fountain.

The contest officially closes when we next hit port.

GET YOUR ALLOTMENT SQUARED AWAY TODAY!!

ALL STANDING RED BATTLE LIGHTS WILL BE LEFT ON DAY - NITE TILL FURTHER NOTICE.
