

The Fisherman Makes Ready for the Run of Shad: Instantaneous Views Home and Abroad

A NEAT TURBAN of light gray artistically trimmed with small ostrich plumes of the same color.

THIS DONKEY hauled this old woman to southern France when the Germans invaded her land, and now has carried her back again to Cutry, her home village, where she lives in a big cave until her little dwelling is again made habitable.

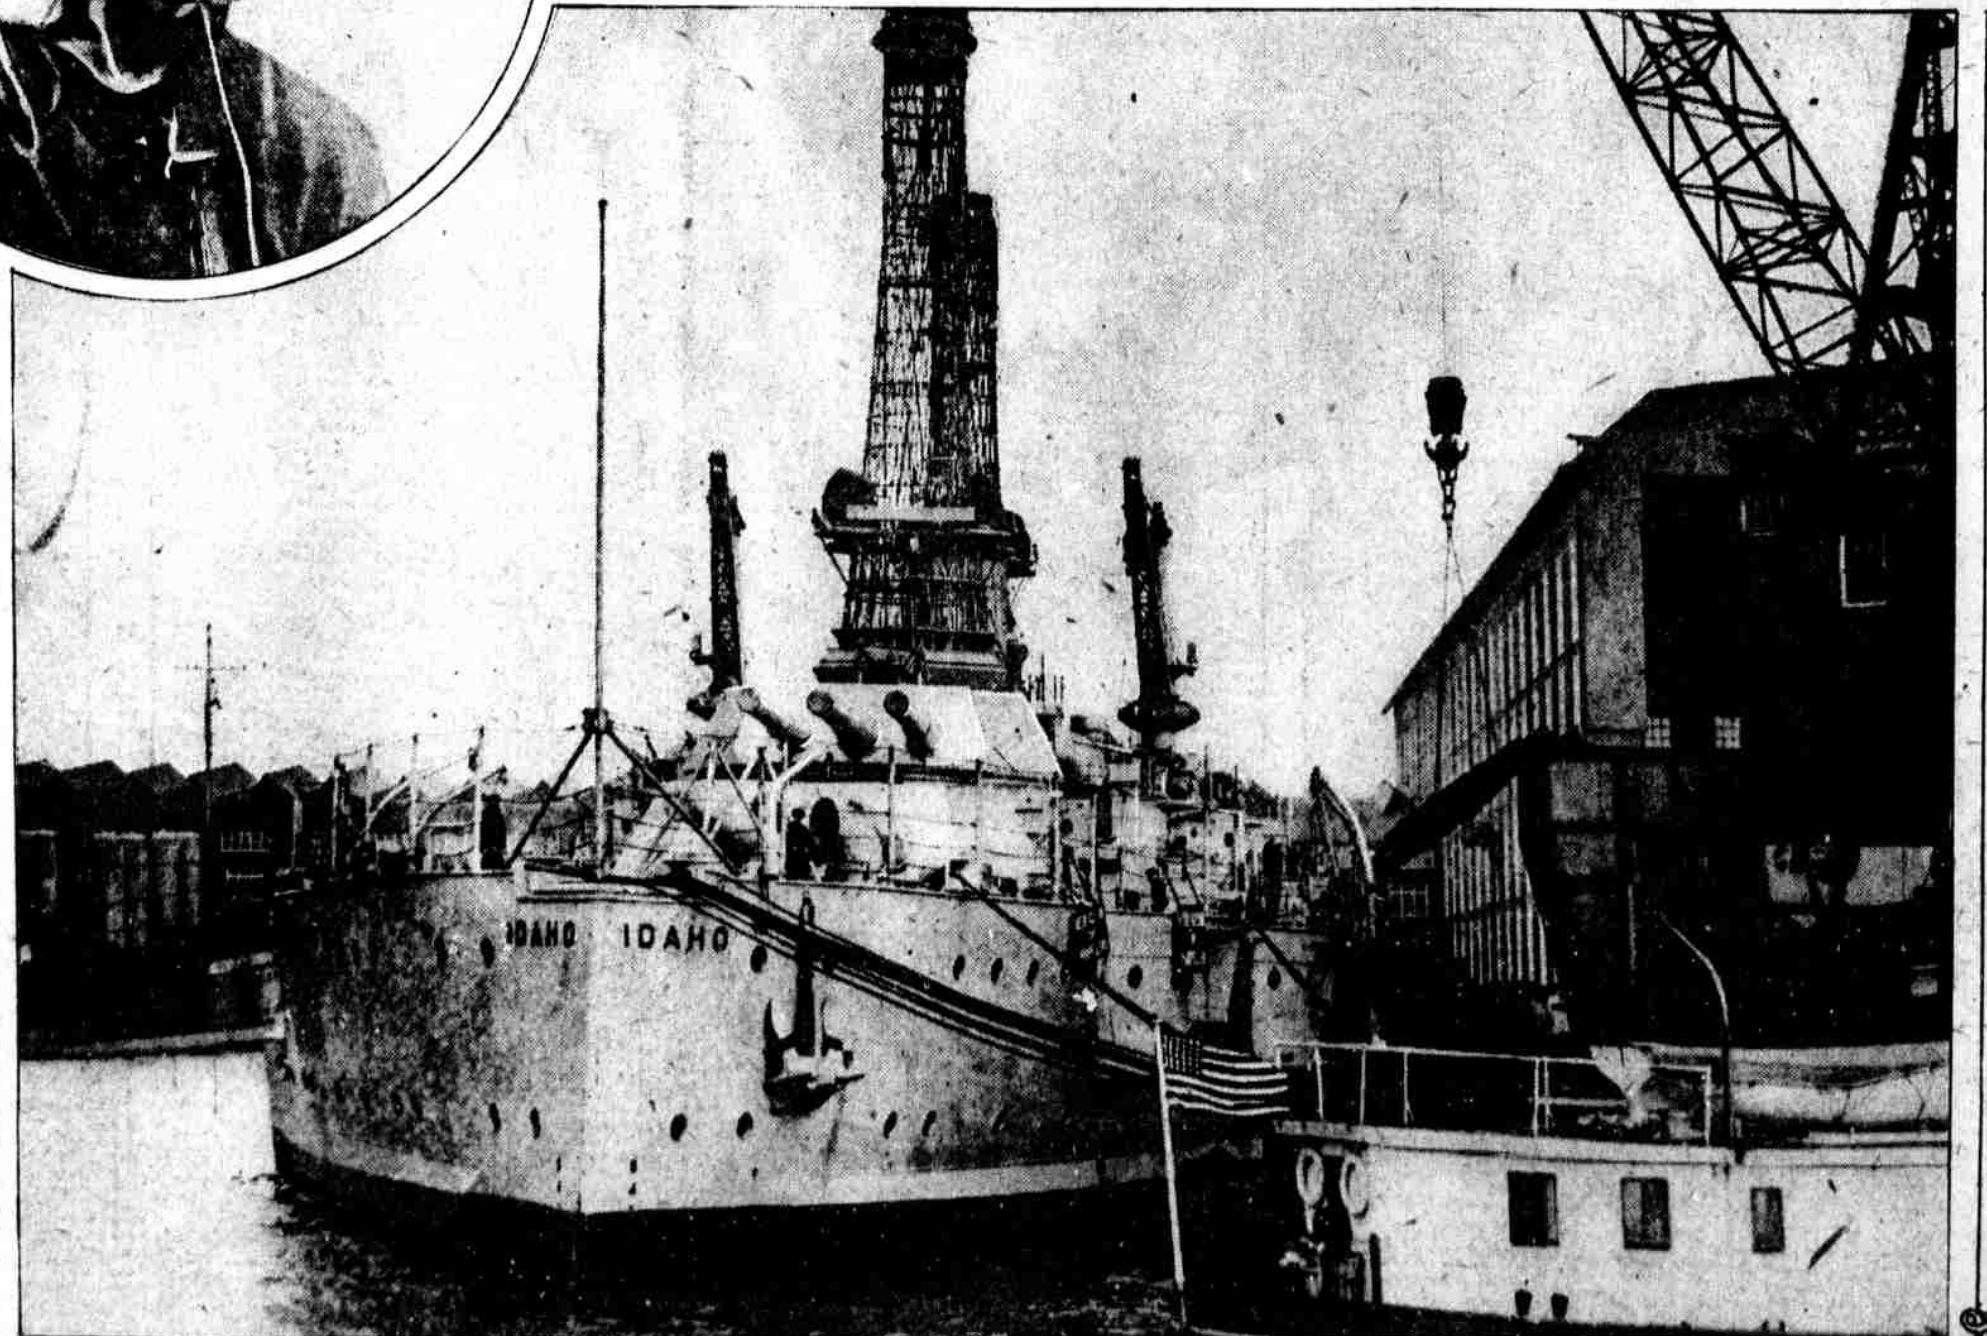

THE MESHES of many a big net are being overhauled at Gloucester in anticipation of an early run of shad. Fishermen are looking forward to the time to haul in the slack of their snarls again, heavy with the weight of roes and bucks.

THE TRANSMITTER AND RECEIVER of the marvelous wireless telephone apparatus which recently enabled an aviator in flight to talk to Secretary of the Navy Daniels at his desk, 150 miles away.

GENERAL SIR W. R. ROBERTSON, of the British army, who has been named as a successor to Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig

THE MIGHTIEST SUPERDREADNOUGHT of the United States navy at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding Corporation, in Camden, ready to move across the Delaware River to the Philadelphia Navy Yard, where the great fighting craft will officially "join the navy."