

MISS GLORIA GOULD POSES
IN REHEARSAL FOR FAIRY
DANCE AT GEORGIAN COURT

Like some prehistoric monster loomed the Idaho, latest of American dreadnoughts to be launched, as she rested on the ways at Camden, N. J., on June 30. This greatest of fighting machines, for secrecy, was built under a covered shed and few saw it take the water, precautions due to the war. The bows on view shows the platform ready for the launching party. The Idaho's sponsors used both wine and water in naming her.

Score 22 to 21 in favor of the Democrats: $3,000 net for the Red Cross. No wonder the President and Mrs. Wilson smiled at the annual baseball game of the House of Representatives, despite a broiling sun.

Not victims of the Huns' air raids on Britain, merely preparing to prevent being slain by bombs. Schoolgirls in Sussex at a raid rehearsal obeying the command: "At the given signal lie down anywhere." These drills are expected to reduce youthful death losses in the future.
