The New York State Commission of the American Legion in Buffalo last week announced the names of the members of the younger set to be awarded the annual Portage Cup. The winners were selected as a group for their outstanding contributions to the American Legion. The ceremony was held in the auditorium of the American Legion Post No. 1, Buffalo, where a special dinner and dance were held in honor of the winners.

The following young people were awarded the Portage Cup:

1. William J. Sullivan, 17, of Buffalo, for his outstanding contributions to the American Legion.
2. John D. Murphy, 16, of Buffalo, for his contributions to the local American Legion post.
3. James E. White, 18, of Buffalo, for his contributions to the American Legion post.
4. John J. O'Brien, 17, of Buffalo, for his contributions to the American Legion post.
5. Edward J. Smith, 16, of Buffalo, for his contributions to the American Legion post.

The winners were presented with Portage Cups at the dinner and dance. The event was sponsored by the American Legion Post No. 1, Buffalo, and was attended by members of the local legion post and their families.

Don't Worry About July 1
KREMEL
First for Thirst

The new cereal beverage of superior quality contains all the rich, nourishing, blood-building ingredients of selected grain, without the alcohol. KREMEL is similar to good beer in taste, color, and flavor—invigorating and thirst-quenching—not intoxicating.

KREMEL is thoroughly digested and positively will not ferment in the stomach.

KREMEL is both food and drink.

KREMEL is beautiful and nutritious—an every-day drink.
