

THE U. S. SUPERDREADNOUGHT TENNESSEE, LARGEST BATTLE UNIT OF THE SEA SO FAR DESIGNED FOR ANY NAVY IN THE WORLD, NOW APPROACHING COMPLETION IN THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD. The Tennessee, Launched Last April, Is 624 Feet Long, Is an Oil Burner With Electric Drive, and Will Develop a Sustained Speed of 21 Knots an Hour. She Will Go Into Commission About Feb. 15 Next.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE S. S. MOLTKE, TO BE THE LARGEST MERCHANT SHIP ON EARTH, Exceeding in All Dimensions the Imperator and the Vaterland, Receiving Her Finishing Touches in the Shipyards at Hamburg, Having Been Designed by the Germans for the American Trade After the War.

(© International Film Service.)

PREMIER GEORGES CLEMENCEAU, FOLLOWING HIS FAMOUS "ALL MUST WORK" ADDRESS AT STRASBOURG, VISITING THE KEHL BRIDGE OVER THE RHINE, ACCOMPANIED BY LEADING MEN OF ALSACE.

(International Film Service.)

CAPTAIN DILLON OF THE BRITISH ARMY AND HIS SISTER, Immediately After Having Been Decorated Together by King George V. at Buckingham Palace for Distinguished Service in the War.

(Times Wide World Photos.)

WILLIAM E. ("PUSSYFOOT") JOHNSON, American Dry Crusader in England, in a London Hospital After His Severe "Ragging" by London Students and Crowd, Which Resulted in the Removal of His Right Eye, His Gameness and Good Sportsmanship After the Incident Raising Him Over Night from a Position of Good-Natured Contempt to the Level of a Popular Hero.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

(Barrett, from Times Wide World Photos.)

H. R. H. THE DUCHESS D'AOSTA,

Who Is Expected to Become Queen of Italy in the Event of the Abdication of King Victor Emmanuel II. and His Queen.