USS MISSOURI (BB-63)

SOUVENIR COPY OF INSTRUMENT OF SURRENDER

THE U.S.S. MISSOURI (BB-63) was built at the New York Navy Yard and was sponsored by Miss Margaret Truman, daughter of President Harry S. Truman.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE

The USS Missouri (BB-63) was built at the New York Navy Yard and was sponsored by Miss Margaret Truman, daughter of President Harry S. Truman.

The Missouri was the last battleship built for the U.S. Navy and was the last battleship to serve in World War II. It was one of the few battleships that remained active during the Korean War and was later used as a training ship for the U.S. Navy. It is now preserved as a museum in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Most of the facilities that would be found in a small city.

300 miles of electric cables and 40 miles of piping.

418,000 square feet of deck space.

Eight 16,000 KW turbo electric generators.

Four 3,000 horsepower main engines.

War component 220,000 tons.

110,000 tons of steel in overall length.

488 feet in overall length.

Some statistical features:

- 300 miles of electric cables and 90 miles of piping.
- 418,000 square feet of deck space.
- Eight 16,000 KW turbo electric generators.
- Four 3,000 horsepower main engines.
- War component 220,000 tons.
- 110,000 tons of steel in overall length.
- 488 feet in overall length.