

Fifty veterans of Pershing's army, who arrived here recently, assisted in selling Liberty bonds. The picture shows some of the boys starting out to see New York.

Central News.

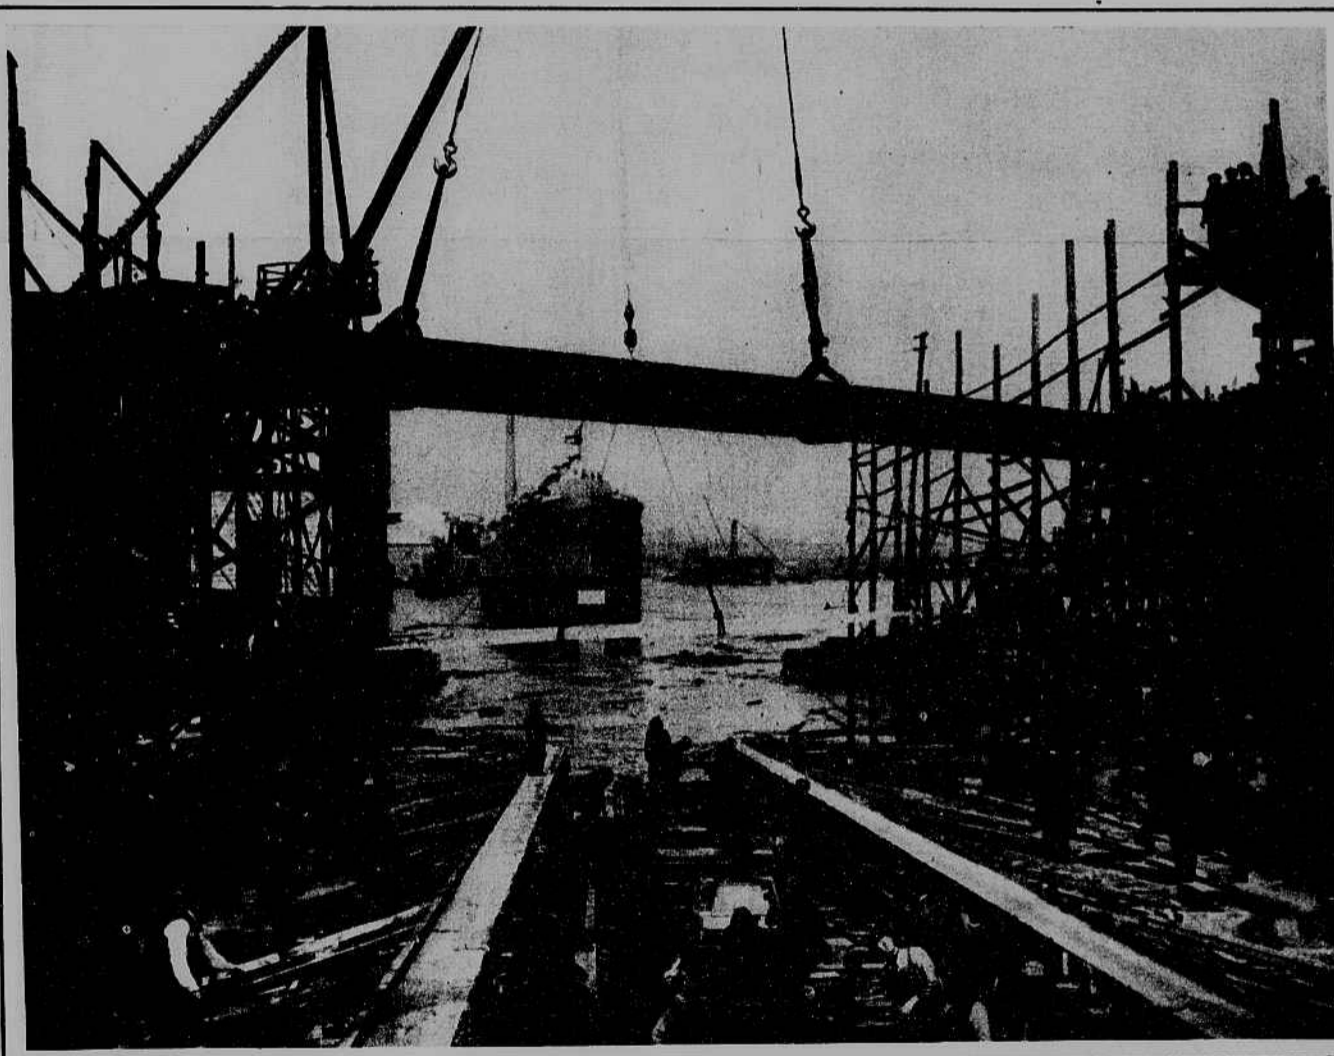

Major Joseph Tulasne, chief of the French aviation mission to the United States, who flew to Washington for lunch and returned to New York for dinner. On the return he brought with him Lieutenant George Flachaire, the French ace. The round trip was made in six hours of flying. This is the first flight from New York to Washington and back made in one day.

Ira L. Hill.

The earthquake in California—Bird's-eye view from the top of the San Jacinto Postoffice Building looking down Main Street.

Central News.

Speeding the ships—One minute after the Accoma had left the ways at a Jersey shipyard workmen started laying the keel for another hull, and eighteen minutes later work was started on the construction of a new vessel. The Accoma is a 3,500-ton wooden cargo vessel.

Central News.

What our battleships had to contend with in winter seas.

Underwood & Underwood.

Part of the crew of an American battleship busy clearing away the frozen spray that covered the decks and the big guns.

Underwood & Underwood.