One More Accepted and Way For Peremptory Challenge Will Be Open For the Second Time.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—The acceptance of a single juror in the case of Patrick Gilmore, charged with robbery, will again prepare the way for objection of peremptory challenges to be directed against the jurors already accepted.

LAST MEETING OF ROOSEVELT AND CABINET

Farewell Gathering Is Characterized By Mutual Felicitations, But Little Business is Transacted.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The last regular meeting of President Roosevelt's cabinet was held today. There was little business, the time being spent in pleasant farewells and reminiscences.

HAGERMAN DID NOT FIGHT STATEHOOD

Former Governor of New Mexico Says Andrews is Responsible For Defeat.

ALBANY, Mar. 2.—Before leaving for New Mexico tonight Herbert J. Hagerman, former governor of that territory, explained that dispatches Saturday relative to defeat of the statehood bill had evidently confused his name with that of his father, in making him J. J. Hagerman, former governor of New Mexico, under representations to the senate committee on territories that New Mexico was unfit for statehood.

GREAT CROWD SEE FAMILY DIE IN FIRE

Firemen Are Unable to Save the Lives of People Who Are Hemmed in By Iron Barred Window.

NEW YORK, March 2.—In a most horrible manner four persons, a man, woman and two children were slowly roasted to death in a fire which swept through a four-story tenement house on Seventh avenue, near Thirty-second street early today. There are nearly a score of the occupants of the building missing and it is feared that a search of the ruins will reveal the fact that the larger part of their number perished in the flames.

TAFT BEGINS WHITE HOUSE OCCUPANCY

President-Elect and Mrs. Taft Are Guests of President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

THOUSANDS THROUGH THE NATIONAL CAPITOL

Estimated 200,000 Visitors Will Witness Quadrennial Show.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—With inauguration day near at hand, the population of this city tonight is from 75,000 to 100,000 greater than usual, and by tomorrow night the surplus will have been doubled.

Of the 31,000 members of civic and military organization who will participate in the inaugural parade, about one third have arrived.

The West Point cadets will reach the city tomorrow afternoon and the Annapolis midshipmen tomorrow night. There is every indication that the weather will be favorable.

Pennsylvania avenue was brilliantly illuminated tonight. Long golden ropes of glittering electric lights, shields bearing in the midst of them the face of the president-elect and other similar devices, made the fronts of many buildings pictures of fairy-land beauty.

As the guests of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, President-elect and Mrs. Taft will begin their occupancy of the White House tomorrow night, going there for dinner and remaining.

After the inauguration there will be a reunion of the various members of the Taft family at the White House. Miss Helen, Robert and Charlie, the three children of the president-elect, arrived tonight.

Miss Della Turley, eighty-two years old, of Millbury, Mass., the only representative of the Taft family of the last generation, is here. She is a sister of Mr. Taft's mother, and has lived with his parents since his boyhood.

BOSTON, March 2.—Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, Mass., tonight won the decision over Bill McKinnian, of Boston, in one of the fastest twelve round bouts ever seen here. While McKinnian evaded several rounds in none did he have a shade the better of it.

RETRIAL OF STANDARD OIL IS NOW ON

Taking of Testimony Was Begun Before Judge Anderson in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 2.—Taking of testimony in the retrial of the case against the Standard Oil company in Indiana was begun today before Judge Anderson.

Frederick S. Hollands, formerly the chief clerk of the Chicago and Alton railroad, testified in regard to the methods used by the company's office in making rates, making copies of tariffs of shippers.

The government contends the published tariff rate on oil between certain points over the Chicago and Alton was 18 cents, while the oil company paid only 6 cents.

Assistant District Attorney Wilkeson attempted to introduce in evidence the tariff sheets showing an 18-cent rate between Chicago and East St. Louis. Judge Anderson ruled that the tariff could not be presented until the government had shown it was the rate presented and filed with the interstate commerce commissioner. The government said the proof would be presented later.

BIGELOW DROPS SUIT

CINCINNATI, March 2.—Albert S. Bigelow, president of the Duquesne copper properties of Detroit, secured an order in the United States court of appeals here today to withdraw his motion to appeal his suit to restrain the stockholders of the Calumet company from voting Duquesne stock on March 11.
