OUTLOOK FOR KALANIANAOLE

Jack Tells of His Fine Chances on the Other
Isles.

“People say to me, ‘Our mouths may seem to brand us for Mc-Candless, but our hearts are for Kuhio.’ I am sure that Prince Kalanianaole will be elected over McCandless as Delegate to Congress.”—A. L. C. Atkinson, Chairman of the Republican Territorial Committee.

Chairman Atkinson of the Republican Territorial Committee, returned yesterday from a tour of Hawaii and Maui with Prince Kuhio, having made many speeches on the stump with the Delegate to Congress. He reports splendid meetings on the Big Island and on Maui, particularly at Hana and Wai-luku, the biggest meetings ever held in those towns being those at which the Prince was the principal speaker.

“The people of the islands of Hawaii and Maui are, in my honest opinion, strongly in favor of the reelection of Prince Kuhio Kalanianaole as Delegate to Congress. I have just returned from a trip through North Hilo, Kona and Maui with Prince Kuhio and Judge Archie Mahaulu. My purpose in going to Hawaii was to look to our fences, or in other words to see that the organization was in good working order.
Contrary to reports and probably on account of the near approach of election day, I found that the people of their respective districts were getting busy.
They realize the importance of Kuhio’s reelection and of working with a will.
It is well known that when Republicans do get out and work, they do so with energy and accomplish results.

“I must say that Kuhio made a wonderful impression upon the people of the different districts and villages and I feel sure that when the people of this island hear him on the stump they will appreciate as I do the improvement in him as a public speaker.

“He has gained a great deal of force and his ability to express himself in his own language as well as in English is more pronounced. He is by far one of the most fluent speakers we have now, and this is a country of orators, too.

“I met Kuhio’s party in Laupahoehoe.
The party included Kuhio, Senators Brown and Hewitt and some of the local aspirants for office. From reports given me I understand they had banner crowds and appreciative audiences, and personally, I must say that I have never spoken to more appreciative throng.

“My honest opinion is that people are finding out McCandless. Next week I will have something to say on the stump about McCandless and his promises to the people to give them vast acres of land, if he is elected to Congress.”

THE HOME HOTELS OF HONOLULU CITY

The secretary of the Territorial Transportation Committee has completed his work of preparing the illustrated booklet on the home hotels of Honolulu. A dozen half-tone cuts of the leading home hotels of the city and vicinity will grace its pages and the prospective tourist will be fully informed as to the merits and locations of each. The home hotels have had nothing to do with the preparation of the matter, agreeing to have their merits set forth impartially from the standpoint of the tourist rather than that of the proprietor. A full page street railway map is one of the features of the booklet. It shows the exact location of each of the home hotels. A page description tells the tourist every place of interest reached by the street car system and how to get there.

Another page is devoted to the things he would most likely wish to know, even before leaving shipboard, such as how to deal with his “luggage,” where to send his laundry and have it returned in three hours; where to get his films developed in half a day; how to make up tallyho, or auto parties for a day in Honolulu, and where to phone for the proper vehicles, location of postoffice, banks, etc., and how to get to them most quickly. On the front cover is a half-tone of a surfing canoe coming in full speed on a large wave, in race with several youngsters standing on their boards. The back cover is AMERICAN SAILORS LANDING FROM THE BATTLESHIPS AT MELBOURNE.

given to the words and music of Aloha Oe. Twenty thousand copies will be distributed in Australia, America, England, Japan and on the Transpacific steamers. H. P. Woods, of the Promotion Committee will also assist in the dissemination of this piece of literature.
An extra edition is likely for the use of the Promotion Committee to distribute through its channels.

J. M. MONSARRAT.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE DIS- TRICT OF HONOLULU, CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU.

I ask for your votes at the coming election, as an Independent candidate for the office of Deputy Sheriff, Honolulu District.

I am a native son of Hawaii. My practise of law in this community has given me a knowledge of its affairs, and an intimate acquaintance with the people and with local conditions.

I stand firmly on the side of law and order, and if elected pledge myself to enforce the laws without fear or favor.

I do not believe that the voters are going to be guided by strict party lines, where the issues are local and not National, but are going to judge for themselves as to the qualifications of the respective candidates for office.

I solicit your support.

I am your fellow citizen,
J. M. MONSARRAT.

ICE DELIVERED AT LOWER PRICE

For the past six years I have been selling ice to customers for forty cents per hundred. A short time ago one of my competitors, the Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd., reduced the rate to its Chinese and Japanese customers only to twenty-five cents per hundred. I met their price. Now they are selling it to that same trade for twenty cents per hundred pounds but there has been no reduction to white customers. Beginning November 1st I will put on extra delivery wagons and will serve all nationalities at twenty-five cents per hundred delivering regularly and promptly to all parts of the city. Any one desiring the service may communicate with me at 133 Merchant street, telephone 146. W. O. Barnhart.
