Will the Radicals Control the New Congress?

A Republican congressional majority, so large as to be unwieldy, has been cut to a margin so small in both Houses of Congress as to be the mercy of a handful of insurgent of doubtful party unity.

While the Republicans sustained losses in the election, the Milwaukee Journal (Ind.) can see that the Democrats made any conclusive gains. Indeed, it is forced to conclude that if one looks for the real gains he finds them to the contrary. The New York Sun notes that winners with radical opposition mandates have run up with that of the Republican . . . as generally they may have if there had existed a great radical party. It has happened in the East and in the West. The radicalism that has come into evidence in this election exceeds sectional bounds. It has eaten into the very fiber of both the old parties.

Do not fail to read in the LITERARY DIGEST this week the summary of opinion upon this very interesting development that has come out of the election. There are a host of other important news-features in THE DIGEST this week which have more than an ordinary appeal. Among them are:

Bakery Fighting for Reorganization
Ten Thousand Automobile Deaths
Turkish Fanaticism "Gone Wild"
The Cry for More Immigration
Discoveries Among the Southern Stars
The Presidential Attack on Dr. Fessick
Four Miles a Minute Through the Air

When the World Gets Overcrowded
Venomous Fish
Musolinii—Garibaldi or Caesar
Thanksgiving as Turkey's Head Falls
Dr. De Forest's Audion Orchestra
Commander O'walley, of the American Legion, and His Four Points

Many Interesting Illustrations, Including the Best of the Humorous Cartoons

How Many Jokes Do You Know?
Wherever people congregate, the spirit of conversation is to speculate. Each group considers that it is the natural course of events to develop a sense of humor, and people in general believe that to be the highest art of the age. The Literary Digest, however, has been able to show that there is no such thing as a sense of humor. It is nothing more than a clever way of making nonsense of a proposition.

Get November 15th Number, on Sale Today—At All News Dealers—10 Cents

The Literary Digest

Fathers and Mothers of America—Ask Their Teachers