IN LINE FOR FUSION

Whitman's Defeat Is Resented, but Mitchel Is Accepted to Beat Tammany.

FINISH TICKET TUESDAY

Executive Committee Expected to Give Preference to Republicans.

Samuel S. Koenig, president of the New York county Republican committee, and William L. Calder, representing the Kings county organization, fell into line yesterday for the fusion ticket. They called upon John Purroy Mitchel and assured him of their support.

There was no mistaking that their submission came hard, but they shook hands and agreed to fight shoulder to shoulder. "The fact is," said Mr. Mitchel after they had departed, "that Whitman saved fusion from Tammany. Complete fusion is sure to win. Am I not right?"

Mr. Koenig in his public comments on the situation said that Mr. Whitman was the strongest candidate before the fusion ommittee, but had been overlooked. Inasmuch, however, as a majority of those present-Mr. Koenig's reference to "those present" was made with some bitterness -had agreed upon Mr. Mitchel, the Republicans were now ready to assent. Mr. Coenig's phrase was directed at the memthe fusion committee personally to Mr. Whitman's cause who had stayed away from the meeting of the general committee because, as the Republicans have asserted from the beginning, outside influences were exerted against Mr. Whitman's candidacy.

Tammany the Main Issue.

"The supreme issue in the coming cam-paign," said Mr. Koenig, "will be the de-feat of Tammany Hall. The Republican organization of the county of New York entered the fusion movement with the determination to aid in uniting all or-ganizations and civic bodies opposed to ganizations and civic bodies opposed to Tammany Hall. It will serve no good purpose at this time to dwell upon the reasons or to analyze the motives of the forty-five members of the Committee of One Hundred and Seven who falled to recognize in Judge Whitman the strongest candidate.

Mr. Mitchel said he was glad the Republicant had agreed to come over to the Opposition to the return of the canteen to the army by Father P. J. O'Callaghan of Chicago, who was reelected president for the fifth consecutive year; a spirited contest for the second vice-presidency necessitated by the refusal of Congressman J. Washington Logue to succeed himself and an argument over the official organ were the features of the closing session.

The opposition to the canteen becam evident after Chaplain John A. Ferry of the United States army urged its return as the lesser of the evils which befall the vision of the liquor served to the men should be intrusted to the authorities who are in closest contact with them," said Father Ferry. "If it were not for the presence of women I could explain to the satisfaction of the male delegates why the immorality now existing in the army posts is due largely to absence of the canteen."

Father Ulrich F. Mueller, a former chaplain and officer in the Germany army and delegate to the international convention at The Hague, said the experience of German officers was that conditions were better in those posts where the canteen was not permitted. Other speakers valued their opposition to the capteen and

The plan presented by Col. Black that was rejected by the River and Harbor Board included an expenditure of $10,504,000 for improvements in the East River to give a depth in the through channel of thirty-five feet and a width of 900 feet. In addition it was proposed to remove rocks and shoals at an estimated cost of $10,451,337, to build a channel in the Harlem Kills 480 feet wide and 24 feet deep at a cost of $4,832,257 and a channel in Little Hell Gate estimated to cost $6,148,629.

The most prominent leature of the vive dence so far was the introduction of a letter sent to Miss Warrington from a hotel in Berkeley after she had returned from Reno. It was addressed to "Dear Pickles" and Signed "Tom" and is alleged to have been written by Diggs.
