In the Eye of the World

PRESIDENT WILL SEND UNITED STATES FLEET ON BIG WAR GAME

Photo by American Press Association.
Enormous view of seaports by American War Fleet. United States battleships at anchor in New York Bay and the Mediterranean, and the British Fleet in the Channel. The Fleet will be rendezvoused in the Mediterranean and then go to the Aufkampfzone, as the United States calls the war area in the Mediterranean. On the way it will have to pass the Italian Fleet and the British Fleet.

Lett War Here Be on the Mosquito

With the approach of warmer weather, the United States is preparing itself for a fight against the mosquito, which is known as a pest. The mosquito is a menace to public health, and the government is preparing to fight it. The government has already sent out notices to all parts of the country to prepare for the war against the mosquito. The government has also sent out a list of mosquito repellents, which are called "insecticides." The government has also sent out a list of mosquito repellents, which are called "insecticides." The government has also sent out a list of mosquito repellents, which are called "insecticides." The government has also sent out a list of mosquito repellents, which are called "insecticides." The government has also sent out a list of mosquito repellents, which are called "insecticides."