LORIMER SAVED BY LAME DUCKS

Ilinis Senator Given Clear Title To His Seat

Generally Conceded That Members Of Legislature Were Orbed, But Evidence Did Not Personally Convert Chicagician With Practices—If Additional Facts Are Brought To Light, Enemies Will Reseek Flight at Next Session

Washington, March 1—Following the most sanguinary and extended assault upon the political interests of the country, the situation of one of the most influential Nework Democrats, Mr. Lorimer of Illinois, is now reported to have been saved from the hands of the Lame Ducker by an act of his own party. Mr. Lorimer, who has been charged with accepting a bribe of $500 from a certain prominent citizen of Chicago, was found to have refused to accept the bribe and declared his own conviction in the matter.

MOOTED BY LORIMER

In the opinion of the Nework Democrats, the situation of Mr. Lorimer is now so critical that a further assault upon his political career would be an act of folly. The party leaders have therefore resolved to extend every possible assistance to Mr. Lorimer in order to enable him to carry on the work of the party.

SHERIFF GUARDS HOUSE OF ALLEGED MURDERER

Ravenna, O. G., March 2—Sheriff of Ravenna, O. G., has been ordered to guard the house of the alleged murderer, a man who was arrested last week for the murder of a woman in the neighboring town of Ravenna.

The sheriff was ordered to guard the house of the alleged murderer by the district attorney, who stated that the man was likely to escape if not guarded.

THE FIGHT IS STILL ON AGAINST MAGAZINE MEN

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 3—President Roosevelt today issued a new proclamation against magazine men, saying that they were destroying the country's moral fiber.

He cited the case of a magazine editor who had been arrested for publishing an article that was considered offensive to the President.

Prejudicial and offensive publications, the President declared, are no longer to be tolerated.

The President further instructed the Postmaster General to issue new regulations to govern the distribution of magazines.
