Arrest Two Who Tried to Kill Madero

Try to Bribe Madero's General and Start Second Revolution

(By United Press Leased Wire)

MT. PARO, May 25—Details of a plot to kill President Madero and his General, J. P. P., and to start a second revolution in Mexico are being revealed here today by a mysterious man who threatened to reveal the plot, declined to arrest Madero today and then swore to reveal the plot. The man, known as William Smith, a private detective employed by Madero, said that he was given the information by a man who claimed to be a member of the rebel army. He said that the plot involved the capture of Madero and General P., and the establishment of a second government in Mexico. The man said that the plot was planned by a group of revolutionaries who were opposed to the government of General P. Three men were arrested today in connection with the plot, but the man said that the plot was still in its early stages.

RUGE APPEARS TO BEG FOR FOOD

Assailant of Mrs. Wambolt Seen Near Buckley-

Bryan Out of It For Good, He Says

By United Press Leased Wire

May 25—A man who was seen in the vicinity of Buckley, Wash., today is believed to be the assailant of Mrs. Wambolt, the wife of a member of the U.S. Senate, who was attacked yesterday in Shelton, Wash. The man, who was identified as J. P. Johnson, was seen in the vicinity of Buckley, and it is believed that he was the person who attacked Mrs. Wambolt.

FUGITIVE APPEARS TO BEG FOR FOOD

An assailant of Mrs. Wambolt, the wife of a member of the U.S. Senate, who was attacked yesterday in Shelton, Wash., has been seen in the vicinity of Buckley, Wash., today. The man, who was identified as J. P. Johnson, was seen in the vicinity of Buckley, and it is believed that he was the person who attacked Mrs. Wambolt.

HOWARD, May 25—A man who was seen in the vicinity of Buckley, Wash., today is believed to be the assailant of Mrs. Wambolt, the wife of a member of the U.S. Senate, who was attacked yesterday in Shelton, Wash. The man, who was identified as J. P. Johnson, was seen in the vicinity of Buckley, and it is believed that he was the person who attacked Mrs. Wambolt.

BRYAN OUT OF IT FOR GOOD, HE SAYS

At 7:10 o'clock this morning, Senator Howard Metcalfe of the Olympic Express train, arrived at the station from Portland. Senator Metcalfe, who was in Washington yesterday, said that he was returning to Oregon to attend the Pacific States Fair, which opens next week in Portland. Senator Metcalfe said that he was returning to Oregon to attend the Pacific States Fair, which opens next week in Portland.

Late Bulletins

ORIOLES WIN

BROWNE TO WED

(By United Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, May 25—Apprehension that the Orioles would lose to the Giants today was dispelled by a sound victory over the Pirates. The Orioles, who have been playing poorly of late, are now 10 games over .500, and are in fourth place in the American League. The game was played before a crowd of 25,000 fans, and the final score was 7-3 in favor of the Orioles.

(For United Press Leased Wire)

BROWNE TO WED

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25—The wedding of Miss Lillian Browne to Mr. Robert Browne, who are to be married this afternoon, will take place in the Old Stone House, which is the residence of the Browne family. The wedding will be attended by a number of prominent Washingtonians, including the Chief Justice of the United States.

Fine Milwaukee Train Leaves

At 7:00 o'clock this morning, the Milwaukee Express train, left for Chicago. The train, which was operated by the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, left from the depot at 7:00 o'clock, and arrived at Chicago at 9:30 o'clock. The train was operated by a crew of four men, and was accompanied by a baggage car.