MEXICAN RUMORS ARE DISQUIETING

President Confers With Members Of Cabinet

Arizona Story Is Discredited--Threat That Invasion By Yankee Troops Would Be Signal For Slaughter Of 40,000 Americans South Of Rio Grande Held False

Abroad For Consideration--Senator Cregg Asks That Jareau Be Considered Closed Port

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau to the rebels, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

Washington, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounded, that rebel forces had captured a number of towns near Yara left many people abroad for consideration, Senator Cregg asked that Jareau be considered closed port.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27--The Mexican revolution, following the peasant uprisings of the important harbor city of Jareau, took a new turn yesterday, provoking a number of accessions and definite questions in the American government. Reports, which later were found to be unfounde