AN INTERESTING SKETCH

Washington Commandery of Knights Templars, a military and charitable organization, was organized in 1837.

In 1849, it was working in the western territories and by 1860, it had a membership of 10,000.

In 1875, the Commandery was awarded the Grand Cross of the Royal Order of St. Michael and St.
George by King William of England.

The Commandery's motto is
"For God and Country Service,
For Country and Country Service.
For God and Country Service.
