

THE CAMERA REPORTS SCENES AND ODDITIES IN THE DAY'S NEWS OF A BUSY WORLD'S ACTIVITIES

PARENT OF MODERN SUBMARINES

The Holland just before she was lifted out of the Delaware yesterday and sent to the scrap heap. Her short, bulbous shape is in curious contrast to the long, slender craft of today. She was accepted by the United States only 15 years ago. The original entrance to the vessel's interior was so small that a fat sailor would have had serious trouble pushing himself through.

PHILADELPHIA MOTOTRUCK MEN GATHER ON THE DELAWARE FOR A DAY'S FUN

Members of the motor truck association of Philadelphia held their annual outing yesterday at Eugler's Bohemian Clubhouse, Morris Junction. There were various athletic events and a ball game, with a big dinner served in the evening.

NEW METHOD OF RECRUITING IN ENGLAND

The fair inventor of this odd device for aiding Lord Kitchener appeared on the streets of Norwich. One anklet says: "Is your conscience clear?" The other: "Enlist today."
