OMAHA EXPOSITION SOUVENIR MEDAL.

(Being a composite of forty-four photographs of typical American women from the various states.)

Among the unique features of the Transmade and transferred to the die. The Mississippi exposition is the souvenir medal, just issued, which, aside from being a memento of unusual beauty, has governors of the several Western states were called upon months ago to select each two beautiful women in his respe also value as a result of scientific photive community and forward their photography. The obverse bears a composite profile The governors responded, and tographs.

of forty typically beautiful women of the West, the result being a profile of the "ideal Western beauty," as the ex-position managers boast. On the reverse appears a mounted Indian in the act of spearing a buffalo. The two dates, 1848 and 1809 toll the stern of the stern the task of completing the composit file was intrusted to a New York pho-forapher. It was no easy task, for never before had a composite photograph of forty faces been successfully finished. After weeks of experimenting severa negatives were made and finished and 1808, tell the story of the progress of the West. When the plans of the exposition were board having in charge the selection of the design with great difficulty made a choice between them. The face, it yet in their infancy, the question of a suitable souvenir medal was discussed, is declared, is that of an ideal Western it must be confessed that the Spanlards as a whole are cruel and bloody minded judged by our standards. They may not be unkind parents, or, among the peasantry, unkind husbands. But what no English speaking people can stomach is the national passion for the bull fight. No passion or sentiment anywhere in the world is, se comprehensively and intense-ly national as the passion, for "tauromachia" is to-day in Spain. There was a time when bull fighting had a comparatively slight hold on the northern prov-inces, but that time is past. Just as the broad "faja." or girdle, is the one article of dress which is worn by all the common people of Spain, otherwise as various in service heretofore maintained. costume as all the rural populations of Augia his Goviras: Bridley of Ken tucky, shown that he is made of the right sort of stuff to make men of, by ordering a company of the state guard to Muyfield to protect Bob Blanks an Afes- imerican accused of rape upon a white female, who is to be tried next week. Their have been six lynchi.ig in Graves County within the past two years and the people then won't do to trust. All boxor to the noble governor. No one need to tear that a black man accused of raps upon a white female in Kentucky, or any where else for that matter, will escape punishment with all the administrations of justice (?) white as they usually are, but we want the murdering when it is done to be done legal'y and not by mob.

The war goes merrily on but the Alre-American is not troubling himself much about it, is it too far ramoved from him, or is he waiting to be invited to the officers pie counter? Officers pie is what he wants we guess.

THE APPEAL is under obligations to Hon. Knute Nelson U. S. S. for valuable public docume its received from Washington, D. C. this week. " .....
