Mr. Edwards is the local agent of the Hupfol Brewing Company of New York. BUT I KNOW It is All Right for Catarrh. It Has Cured Me."

General Egan's testimony is similar to that which I am receiving from all over the country. I had not thought of advertising my Paw-Paw for curing Catarrh, Colds, Rheumatism and Kidney ailments, for the reason that I have thought that a remedy reason that I have thought that a remedy that would positively cure Dyspepsia and all stomach allments: that would purify and revitalize the blood; that would positively cure Nervousness and Sleeplessness was doing all that any one remedy could be reasonably supposed to do. But the hundreds of testimonials that I have received from reliable people, from chemists, from doctors, from people that I am bound to believe, that my Paw-Paw has cured of Chronic Catarrh and Kidney and Rheumatic Allments, lead me to feel that it is without doubt the most infallible remedy known for curing Catarrh and all Blood ailments.

I can account for the phenomenal cures I can account for the phenomenal cures only on the ground that my Paw-Paw makes good, rich, red blood by digesting and assimilating all the food that is but into the stomach.
