DELUGE TO IN SUPERIOR

DESMOND, MICH., Jan. 1.—With the aid of 100 men, 120 firemen and 25 pumps, the fire was finally extinguished after it had been raging for two days. The fire started in a lumber yard and spread rapidly, threatening the entire town. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

FIVE SUBMARINES TO GUARD PACIFIC END OF CANAL PANAMA

The Navy Department has ordered the construction of five submarines to guard the Panama end of the Pacific canal. These vessels are to be equipped with the latest armor and torpedoes, and will be armed with 10-inch guns. The submarines will be stationed at the mouth of the canal, and will be under the command of Rear Admiral W. S. Harley.

LIBERALITY IS ALASKAN NEED

The Alaska legislature has granted a liberal appropriation to the University of Alaska, and has provided for the establishment of a normal school in the state. This is the first time that the legislature has shown any inclination to provide for the education of the youth of Alaska.

LOWER SONORA FEELS THE BURDENS OF WAR

Tucumcari, Mexico, Dec. 31.—The Burress mine, belonging to the Tucumcari Mining Company, has been abandoned. The mine has been in operation for many years, but the war has caused a great decrease in the demand for silver, and the company has been unable to meet its expenses.

LOCAL NEWS

New York, Jan. 2.—The New York Stock Exchange is still in a state of uncertainty. The market is ruled by the war, and the outlook is uncertain. The Dow Jones average has declined to 138, and the market is in a state of low activity.

Attention is called to the following items:

1. The navy is to have three destroyers and two cruisers.
2. The army is to have 10,000 additional troops.
3. The government is to increase the national debt by $500,000,000.

ATTENTION EAGLES

Meeting Monday, 8th, Joe Geary, and 80 others are expected to be present. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the headquarters of the local chapter of the American Legion.

STOCKS TO WATCH

Certain stocks are worth watching in the present market conditions. These include:

1. The Standard Oil Company.
2. The Union Pacific Railroad Company.
3. The International Harvester Company.

Attention is called to the following developments:

1. The Standard Oil Company is expected to announce a large dividend.
2. The Union Pacific Railroad Company is expected to announce a large dividend.
3. The International Harvester Company is expected to announce a large dividend.

ATTENDANCE REPORT

The attendance at the recent meeting of the local chapter of the American Legion was very good. The meeting was well attended, and the speakers were well received.

BOX OFFICE REPORT

The box office business has been very good recently. The latest films have been well received, and the box office receipts have been good.

ATTENTION EAGLES

Meeting Friday, January 2, Joe Geary, and 80 others are expected to be present. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the headquarters of the local chapter of the American Legion.