Cruisers and Submarines Are in Port

Vessels and inspectors of election near commission

Docking a Big Inspector of Election Near Commission

Cruisers and Submarines in Port, All O. K.

South Dakota and West Virginia Here With Their Charges—The Smokey

Docked at 12 O'clock the morning of the 7th, the cruisers and the submarines of the American Atlantic fleet are expected to visit Hawaiian waters shortly.

The cruisers are expected to visit the islands early next week, and the submarines will remain on duty in the vicinity.

The cruisers are expected to visit the islands early next week, and the submarines will remain on duty in the vicinity.