

FOYER GOSSIP.

The fashion show is to become a regular feature of the Keith program...

In "Green Stockings," Maud Gilbert will have the biggest comedy role...

Edith Bradford will return to the National next week with the Aborn's production of "The Mikado."

Elinor Henry will spend the next week in taking a much needed rest and preparing for the stage of hot weather productions...

The regular vaudeville season at Keith's will continue as long as the patronage of the patrons keeps up...

Ottola Nesmith, the Washington girl who has achieved prominence in stock productions...

Reduction of salaries to the so-called "summer" schedule is said to be responsible for the withdrawal of Charles...

"Watch Your Step" was produced in London two weeks ago and is said to have scored a hit...

"On Trial" has been given the approval of the Librettors, according to a dispatch to Variety.

T. Roy Barnes and Janet Dunbar are to have the leads in the Max Marlin farce, "I Want Money" which Al H. Woods is preparing to produce.

Frederick Santley, brother of Joseph, is to play Youth in "Experience" when William Elliott leaves the cast.

H. H. Frazer plans to produce a new farce, "A Full House," at the Lansdowne theater tomorrow night with a cast headed by Herbert Corthell and May Vokes.

McIntyre and Heath have closed their theatrical season and are preparing to appear in a photoplay version of "The Hamlet" in which the Vernon Castles also will be featured.

Charles Chaplin, the motion picture comedian, was offered $150,000 per year to appear with the new Ziegfeld Follies...

"Under Fire," a new play by Rol Copper Negrus, is to be produced in Atlantic City by the Selwyn of Washington with a cast that includes William Courtney, Violet Hemming, Arthur Shaw and Paul Kramer.

Rockcliffe Fellowes, former leading man of the Follies, is now playing the leading role in "Under Cover" in New York.

James Montgomery, author of "Ready Money," is to be featured in vaudeville at the Palace, in New York, in a sketch written by himself and staged by Arthur Hopkins.

Adela Rowland, who, by the way, is a Washington girl, has scored in New York personal success in "Nobody Home," the new musical comedy at the Princess Theater in New York.

Dorothy Donnelly is to play the leading feminine role in "Candida" which Arnold Daly will produce in New York this week as the last of his cycle of Shaw plays.

Arrangements have been completed for a limited season by Sarah Bernhardt at the New Amsterdam Theater in New York beginning September 29...

Irene Buck, who appeared last season in the leading feminine part in "The Misleading Lady," has been engaged to play leading parts with the Ben Greet players.

Daniel Frohman, it is stated, will take charge of the estate of his brother, Charles Frohman, and will again enter the legitimate theatrical field.

Jayne Herbert, the contralto of the Aborn forces, who is a great favorite in Washington, will be seen next week in the production of "The Mikado."

Charles Squires, the scenic artist of the Columbia, is receiving many commitments for the excellence of the settings he has provided for the productions during the present season of musical plays.

Granville Barker has commenced a tour of the college towns of the country during the course of which he will stage several new plays...

Louis Haines, of the Follies, justified the confidence his friends have always expressed in him by his performance of the part of the hermit in the production of "The Seven Keys to Ballpatte" last week.

Gall Kane is contemplating a vaudeville tour. Richard Bennett is to make a vaudeville tour "Somebody's Baby," by C. H. O'Donnell.

Julian Eltinge was recently approached by a woman who offered to pay him $10,000 for ten weeks for a total of $100,000. Eltinge was not engaged.

David Belasco produced "The Love Doctor," featuring Janet Beecher as a woman doctor, in Hartford last week. Ramsey Wallace, seen here in "Polygamy," is the leading man, and the cast also includes the Barons, Hardy Kirkland, Antonette Walker, and others.

Louise Gunning is reported to be headed for Broadway once more, after resting in the California mountains from her long trip abroad.

Willard, "the man who grows," has proved a greater vaudeville attraction than Willard, "the man who knows how to be a real white horse." The first named will appear at Keith's to prove it next week.

George Nash is to be presented shortly by the Shuberts in a new play by Marsha Morton called "The Baron," which is described as a modern comedy.

Elsie Ferguson has done so well in "Outpost" in Chicago that the original booking has been extended indefinitely.

How Pretty Society Girl Originated F-4 Benefit

Casual Remark Started Movement For Tonight's Entertainment—Proceeds Go to Dependents of Officers and Submarine Crew.

This is the story of a casual remark by a pretty Washington society girl...

box holders being Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Roosevelt, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Nash, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Crook, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Duncan, C. Phillips and Mrs. Ord Preston...

The organization of the force then proceeded with the following result: Box office attendants, Naval instructor James E. Ackerson and Lieut. Adolph Stator.

The benefit organized. The organization of the force then proceeded with the following result: Box office attendants, Naval instructor James E. Ackerson and Lieut. Adolph Stator.

Form of Benefit Decided On. Being energetic young women who try to make themselves useful—and some being wives and daughters of army or navy officers—they determined to do something immediately and to interest every navy and army officer in Washington in the proposition.

That solved the question of what the form of the benefit should be. Despite the fact that submarines are among the most important things in the world today, there are few people who know much about them.

Features Are Contributed. Lieutenant Hinkamp was next visited. He was more than pleased to deliver the lecture, he told them, for such a purpose. Further than that, he knew of a number of motion picture studies of submarines which had been made by Paul Thompson, of New York...

Uncle Joe' Dances Like Spring Lamb in Honolulu. SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Although "Uncle Joe" Cannon would not dance the Virginia reel in San Francisco, the veteran Congressman is dancing with the ardor of a spring lamb in Honolulu...

Harem Girls' Secrets Told by Sultan's Doctor. Nowhere in the world is long, silky hair held in such high esteem as among the women found in the harems of the Sultan of Turkey.

List of Patronesses. Thus equipped, the committee called on the wives of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Army and the wives of all the higher officers of the navy and army.

When the hair threatens to leave you can't afford to take any chances. Go to O'Donnell's Drug Store, 904 F street, and ask for a 50c bottle of Speiser's Scalp Tonic.

Look at your coat collar. If it shows evidence of dandruff you can take it as a sure sign of coming baldness unless you take steps to prevent it.

When the hair threatens to leave you can't afford to take any chances. Go to O'Donnell's Drug Store, 904 F street, and ask for a 50c bottle of Speiser's Scalp Tonic.

Use it according to directions and in a reasonable time dandruff, falling hair and irritations of the scalp and skin will disappear and the growth of the hair will be promoted.

With the Local Musicians

Mrs. Johnson Manning was hostess at a musicale yesterday afternoon, where Misses Isabel Gittinger, Genevieve Runk, and Dorothy Baumgarten played piano solos...

Harry Patterson Hopkins, musical director of Washington College, arranged the following program for the closing exercises on Friday: Weber's "Concert-stueck in F minor" (Miss Margaret Bergner); Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso" (Miss Helen Dotterer); Massow's "In Autumn" (Miss Frances Rayner); Saint-Saens' "Concerto in G minor" (Miss Elizabeth Meek); and the "Raymonda Overture," scored for two pianos and four players.

The Nordica Mandolin, "Guitar and Banjo Clubs repeated their spring concert Friday evening under the auspices of a concert by the Metropolitan M. E. Church. The soloists were Edythe Marlin Brosius, harpist; Helen Donohue De Yo, soprano; Claude Howell Smith, mezzo-soprano; Richard Backing, tenor; B. W. De Loos, mandolinist; and A. D. Bailey, banjoist. Walter T. Holt is director of the clubs, and Mrs. Grace Dufour Brown, the accompanist.

The steamer St. Johns, Washington's fastest excursion steamer, arrived this week and took its place with the other vessels at the Seventh street wharf to await the opening of the excursion season.

Every part of the vessel has been repainted, and the cafe and salon parlor have been redecorated. The staterooms have been put in excellent condition and will be most comfortable for the run to Colonial Beach and return. The dance decks have been given special attention.

The St. Johns will inaugurate its moonlight trips of forty miles down the Potomac as soon as the weather permits, leaving the Seventh street wharf every evening at 7 p. m. except Saturday and Sunday.

TODAY'S PROGRAMS.

A lecture on submarine warfare by Lieut. Clarence N. Hinkamp, U. S. N., will be given at 8 p. m. at the National Theater. The program today at the Strand will be headed by the Herold Alone. In "The Lure of the Mask," Auxiliary features include advance Keystone and other pictures.

Crandall's Theater is featuring today the fifth of the "Who Pays?" series, entitled "Into Heredof Alone." Other pictures will be shown in addition to the Sunday concert of Prof. Green's orchestra and the Crandall pipe organ recitals.

"The Juggernaut," the second V. L. S. N. release, featuring Earl Williams and Anita Stewart, will have its initial showing today at Moore's Garden Theater. Supplementary features include Keystone farce and music by the Garden Symphony Orchestra.

The Rachmaninoff "Prelude," selections from Wagner's "Tannhauser," Trinka's "Jolly," "Nodding Tulip," and Bagler's "National Emblem March," a patriotic tribute, will be on the musical program at the Cosmos Theater today from 8 to 10:30 p. m. A special feature will be the detailed story of the ball game at St. Louis with the Nationals, as told by the Cosmos electrical scoreboard.

G. U. Dental Frat Holds Annual Feast

With addresses by officers and faculty members, Psi Omega Dental Fraternity of Georgetown University held its annual banquet last night at the Powhatan Hotel.

The speakers were Grand Master Kyle B. Alsobrook, Dr. S. W. Bowles, Dr. D. S. Taylor, Dr. C. H. Hopkins, Dr. Ryan Beveridge, and Dr. H. D. Adams.

Rob 50 in Poolroom.

DETROIT, Mich., May 15.—Seven robbers, five of them masked, and all of them armed, entered the billiard hall of Curro & Keasler, on Fort street, last night and made off with $50. They lined up about fifty men and escaped, the police say, with more than $1,000.
