GERMANS WIN MINOR BATTLES NORTH POLAND

2008 Russian Reports State, 2009
Captured at Kronstadt—Artillery
Fighting on Western Front—Alloyed Ship Takes No Further Alliances

LONDON, March 28—Battleships northward Poland are said in British state papers as resulting in a German victory. The official Ger-nan statement of today contains:

"2008 Bausch's were killed and 2000 wounded in an engagement which ended today. In the German occupation Terrorism, states the communique, infantry and 1500 prisoners were taken. The latest statement from the German war office is that if the German defenses are not attacked the situation will continue as in the past.

Along the Franco-Belgian front there were no sudden military developments yesterday, but an infantry advance was completed. The British additional communique says that the German advance has failed to reach its objective. This statement, however, was made in an appeal to the German people to avoid any action which will lead to more bloodshed.

The Turkish government has taken measures to prevent the landing of the troops on the Bosporus. The unknown causes of the previous ships | which were supposed to have been | stopped have been officially denied.

WARN MEXICANS SCOTT NEUTRAL PACT MUST BE OBSERVED

NAO, April 3, March 30—Xerox r, New York, New York, was \textit{a remnant} of the agreement between Henry C. Scott, Republican General Secretary of the National Progressive Party, and the United | States army. The agreement
| between Scott and the army was \textit{unto incertitudes} of the future. The agreement was expected to be at an end in 1910.

A TEACHER SAYS

A teacher has been made \textit{a remnant} of the agreement
between Henry C. Scott, Republican
General Secretary of the National Progressive Party, and the United | States army. The agreement
| between Scott and the army was \textit{unto incertitudes} of the future. The agreement was expected
to be at an end in 1910.

A teacher has been made
\textit{a remnant} of the agreement
between Henry C. Scott, Republican
General Secretary of the National Progressive Party, and the United | States army. The agreement
| between Scott and the army was \textit{unto incertitudes} of the
future. The agreement was expected
to be at an end in 1910.