SEARCH FOR SUBMARINE KEPT UP
ALL LAST NIGHT AND THROUGH DAY

(Continued from page one)

The search for the missing NAVAL SHIP, the "F," has been kept up all last night and through day. The search will continue until the ship is found or until the search is discontinued.

STAR-BULLETIN FINDS BALLOON
WHICH MAY BE USED IN HUNT

The balloon was brought here by the United States Navy from San Francisco.

STOR-MORESaCURED HERE;
ARRIVED AUG. 24

The balloon was brought here by the United States Navy from San Francisco.

F-4 CAME HERE;
FROM SEATTLE;
ARRIVED AUG. 24

The balloon was brought here by the United States Navy from San Francisco.

Men of F-4 Buried 35 Fathoms Deep

The bodies of the men of the F-4 were recovered from their submarine, which sank off the shore of the Philippines, and were buried in the deep waters.

THOUSANDS VISIT WATERFRONT
FOR GLIMPSE OF HUNT

The bodies of the men of the F-4 were recovered from their submarine, which sank off the shore of the Philippines, and were buried in the deep waters.

Introducing the Motor Busses

Before inaugurating the regular motor bus service between Honolulu and Schofield Barracks, as advertised on another page of today's Star Bulletin, the Highway Transportation Co. will run a

A Moonlight Excursion

Saturday and Sunday Evenings, 7:15 - March 27 and 28 respectively

CARS will be run every thirty minutes from the Union Depot, 2322 Kapiolani Blvd., to Schofield Barracks, 4 miles away.

A two hour ride for 50c per passenger

Don't miss this enjoyable ride. Both men and women rates. Get your party now and try out the bus line.

On Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, there will be a set for every hour making the same two-hour trip.