

GERMAN PRISONERS ARE SOCIAL LIONS

Von Tirpitz's Son and Captain Mueller Meet King and Society.

NATURALIZED TEUTON BANKERS SHUNNED

Though Friends of England, Looked Upon as Traitors to Own Country.

London, April 27.—Personal friendship and business and financial interests are linking together in the most curious and remarkable way Englishmen and Germans.

Among the German prisoners of war in England are officers who number among their English friends not only some of the smartest people in society but also some of the greatest prominence in the political world.

There are at the present moment at least a dozen German officers in England who are put on parole who certainly cannot complain of the treatment accorded to them by their "enemy friends."

But by a curious combination of circumstances he is one of the directing forces at the English Treasury. Even more remarkable is the case of Baron Schroeder.

Among the group of Germans now in England who are subjected to the most rigid social boycott are Sir Ernest Cassell, Sir Edgar Speyer, Sir Carl Meyer and Baron Schroeder.

Lobsters Cheap as Prunes. (From a staff correspondent of the Tribune.) Boston, May 6.—So far this week more than 1,000,000 live lobsters have been received from Nova Scotia.

WILSON ASKS NEW POWER OVER BANKS

Controller Wants Right to Fine Officers, as Well as Institutions.

RIGGS CASE IN MIND SHOWN IN LETTERS

Request to House Banking Committee Similar to One Turned Down Last Year.

Washington, May 6.—The right to fine individual officers of banks, as well as the institutions themselves, for just such practices as he charged against the officers of the Riggs National Bank, is being urged by Controller Williams in letters to members of the House Banking and Currency Committee.

Two days after his arrival in England as a prisoner of war he was again Mr. Churchill's guest and later became the guest of Lord Haldane.

But by a curious combination of circumstances he is one of the directing forces at the English Treasury. Even more remarkable is the case of Baron Schroeder.

Among the group of Germans now in England who are subjected to the most rigid social boycott are Sir Ernest Cassell, Sir Edgar Speyer, Sir Carl Meyer and Baron Schroeder.

Lobsters Cheap as Prunes. (From a staff correspondent of the Tribune.) Boston, May 6.—So far this week more than 1,000,000 live lobsters have been received from Nova Scotia.

Lobsters Cheap as Prunes. (From a staff correspondent of the Tribune.) Boston, May 6.—So far this week more than 1,000,000 live lobsters have been received from Nova Scotia.

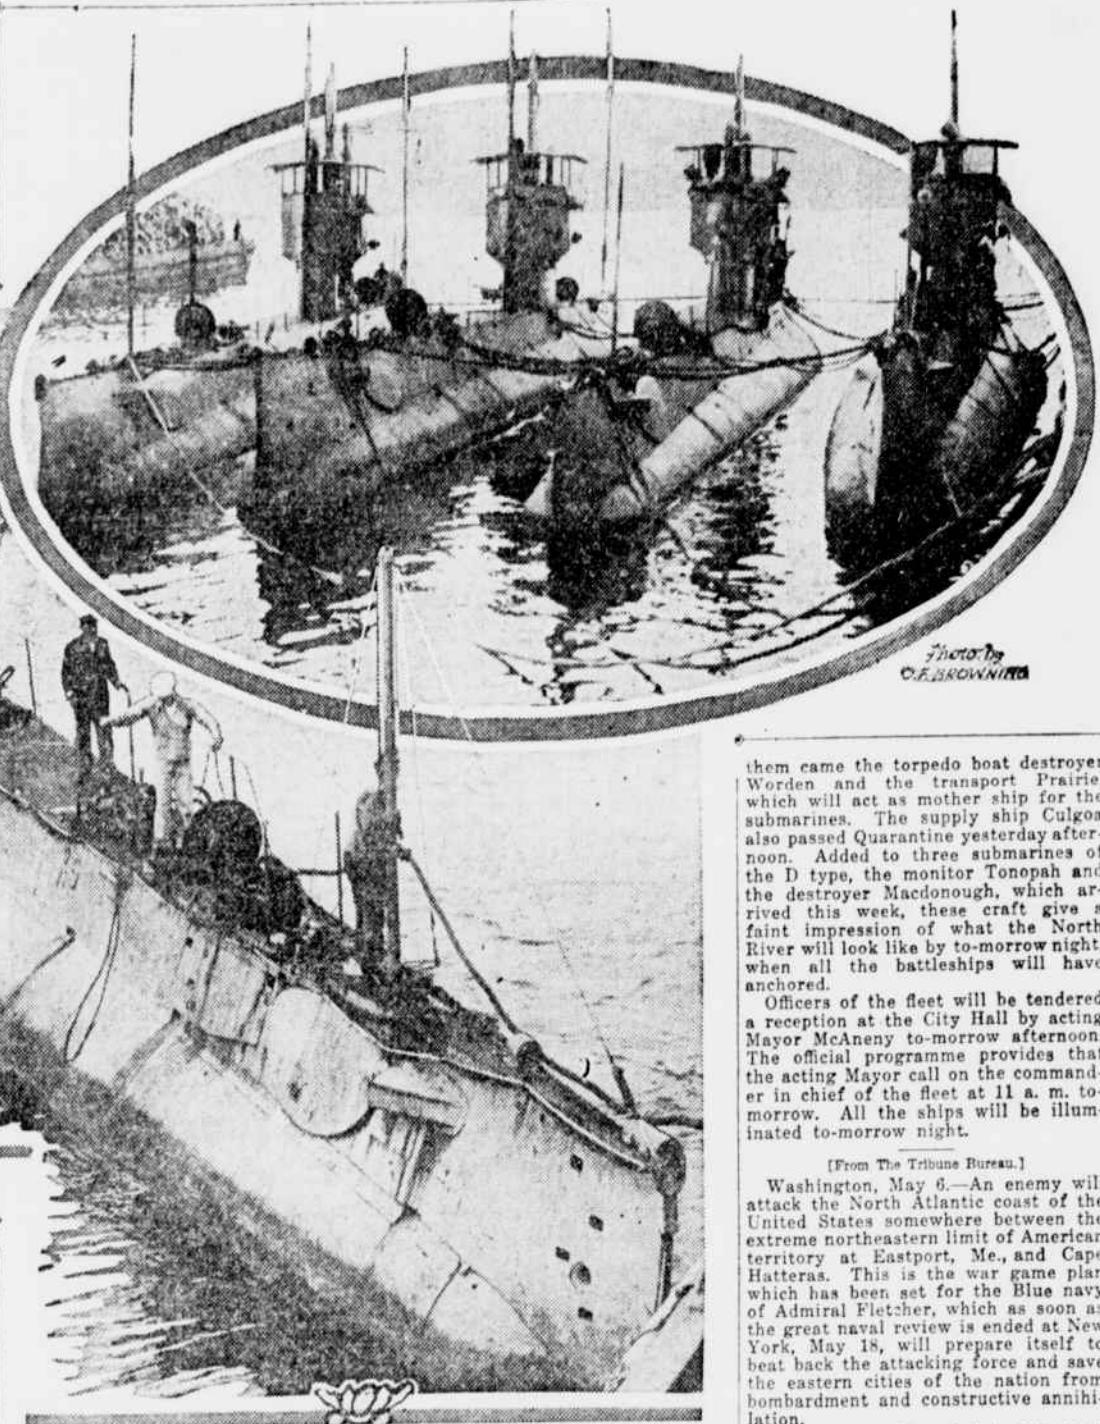

Wilson To Talk on Navy After Reviewing Parade of Sailors from Big Fleet Here

Saucy Submarines Snooping Around River as Vanguard of Atlantic Fleet—Fun for Sailors Cut to Give Them Rest.

While curious-looking submarines, the vanguard of the Atlantic fleet, were poking their noses up the Hud-

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOC.

Submarines K-1, K-4, K-5 and K-6 at 135th Street and the North River—K-5 getting into place is shown in lower picture.

son yesterday, announcement came from the Mayor's Committee on Entertainment that President Wilson would give an address after reviewing the land parade May 17.

At the dinner in honor of the officers of the state and City of New York, the attendance at the Waldorf-Astoria, the attendance at the Waldorf-Astoria, the attendance at the Waldorf-Astoria.

CARMAN'S MAID TELLS BRIBE TALE

Continued from page 1

tion alleged to have been held in the Carman kitchen immediately after the murder. "Celia told me," Toomer said, "that Mrs. Carman said she would never confess."

"That's all," said the District Attorney. "Negro Wrote Down Conversation." "Toomer," said Mr. Levy, beginning the cross-examination, "you have a pretty good memory, haven't you?"

"Yes," said Toomer. "Did you ever show this paper to the District Attorney?" "No, sir."

Prosecution Rests Case. With that—it was then 2 p. m.—the District Attorney announced that his case was in. Mr. Levy, in opening, referred to the Hicks matter, and said he did not know whether Hicks had made the offer or not, and that he was interested in trying to get at the truth of it.

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

CALLS PENN. STATE POLICE "COSSACKS"

Head of Labor Federation Declares They Create Reigns of Terror.

URGES LABOR MEN TO ARM THEMSELVES

Constabulary Caused Bloodshed at Bethlehem, Says J. H. Maurer.

Washington, May 6.—Charges that the Pennsylvania State Constabulary is used to break strikes and create reigns of terror in times of industrial disputes were made to the United States Commission on Industrial Relations today by James H. Maurer, president of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, and member of the state Legislature.

Further inquiry into the constabulary will be made by the commission already have been summoned to testify. Inquiry into Pennsylvania Railroad labor conditions continued today, among the witnesses being Samuel H. Hoyer, former Mayor of Altoona, Pa., who told of the strike in the Pennsylvania shops there in 1911.

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

M'CARREN'S AD FULLY VINDICATED

Disbarment Proceeding Against Samuel S. Whitehouse Fails.

REFeree ASSAILS WILLIAM S. HURLEY

Motives in Bringing Action and His Business Methods Are Criticized.

Samuel S. Whitehouse, a Democratic politician of Brooklyn and former one of the chief lieutenants of the late Senator Patrick H. McCarron, was yesterday fully exonerated of the charge of unprofessional conduct, on which former Justice John J. Freedman, assigned by the Appellate Division of the First Department, heard testimony in disbarment proceedings. John Freedman attacked the motive of William S. Hurley in seeking the disbarment of the lawyer.

The charges were brought a year ago by the Bar Association on information furnished by Hurley, who was vice-president of the Borough Bar. The men formerly were close friends. There were seven separate charges against Whitehouse. Four related to his dealings with and for Edward Johnson and two corporations controlled by Johnson. Another charge was that Whitehouse refused to deliver to Hurley certain shares of stock he was entitled to until Hurley had paid him $500.

Further inquiry into the constabulary will be made by the commission already have been summoned to testify. Inquiry into Pennsylvania Railroad labor conditions continued today, among the witnesses being Samuel H. Hoyer, former Mayor of Altoona, Pa., who told of the strike in the Pennsylvania shops there in 1911.

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

On the night of the murder, and that the man moved slowly down the street. Juror No. 2, who recalled the testimony of Mrs. May Black, a state's witness, that she saw a man in a slouch hat near the Carman house, asked: "Did this man wear a slouch hat?"

