

Features of Interest Gleaned From the World's Highways and Byways by the Camera

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON'S ITALIAN HOSTS SHOWING THEM THE SIGHTS OF THE ROMAN COLOSSEUM

MISS GRACE TABOR, landscape architect, has enlisted with the National War Garden Commission to prove that the finest landscapes this year will be the ones with beets and potatoes. She will campaign throughout the East

"JIM," COLONEL ROOSEVELT'S FAVORITE CHARGER IN CUBA, is now thirty years old and living in luxury. He occupies a stall in a steam-heated stable. "Jim" lost his teeth years ago, so his owner, Mr. Figliuolo, is feeding him crushed oats, bran and such food he doesn't have to chew

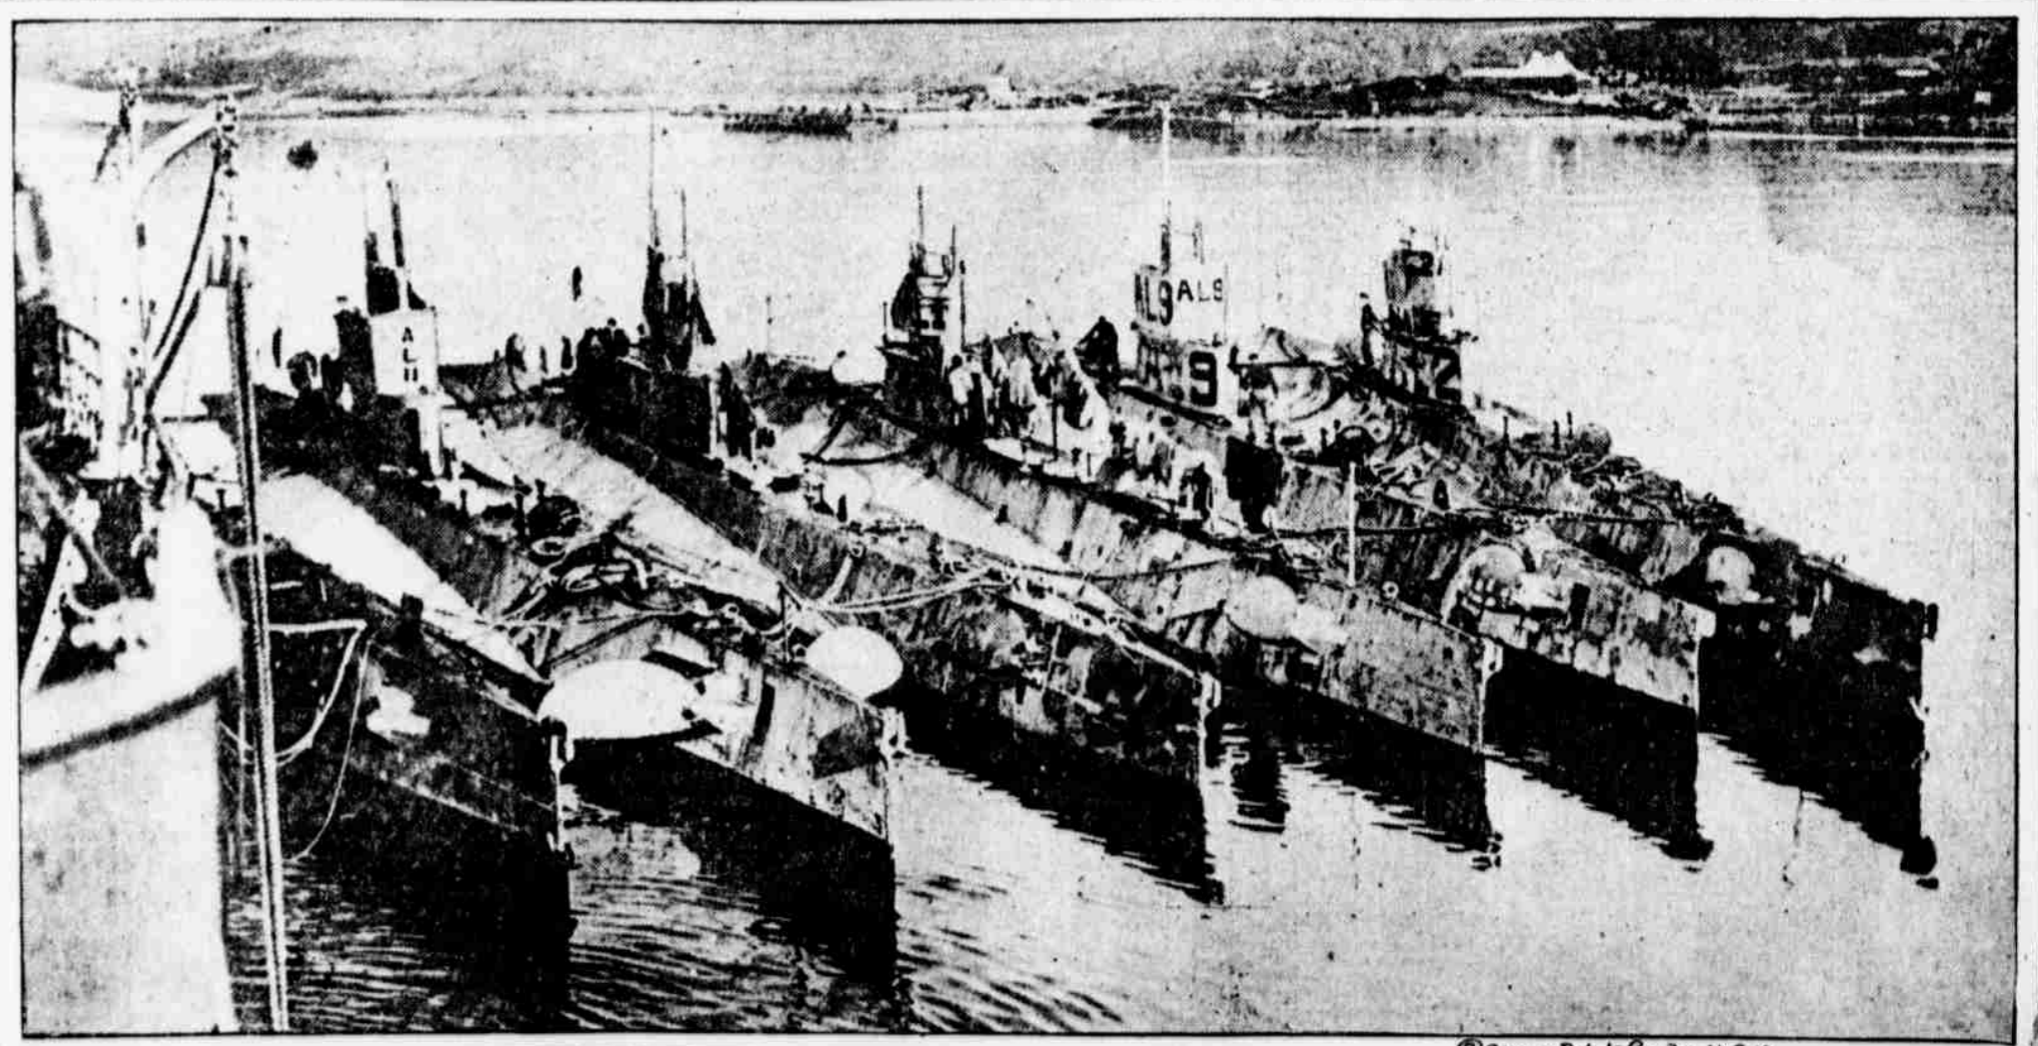

MANY WOUNDED SOLDIERS will operate motion picture projectors as soon as they are freed from the hospitals. Training in the operation of these machines is a part of the curative activities for patients in the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington

THIS PATRIOTIC LITTLE COLORED CHAP is saluting some of his colored brothers returned from abroad and now on the way to the demobilization camp.

EX-KING MANUEL, so London reports, is ready to go back to Portugal if his country wishes him to return. In the meantime, Manuel and his wife, a distant cousin of the former Kaiser, are devoting most of their time in England to farming.

AMERICAN SUBMARINES return to the base to "feed." A school of United States "subs" alongside of "er" ship at a base on the Irish coast.