

TRIBUTE TO MEMORY OF EDITH CAVELL, nurse executed by Germans, being paid by Belgian soldier on anniversary of her death, celebrated in London as "Violet day"

MRS. GEORGE CLINE, wife of accused murderer of film actor, leaving courthouse with brother

THE BEAUTIFUL COURTHOUSE AT HACKENSACK, N. J., scene of the Bergen murder trial, where George Cline, Alice Thornton and Charles Scullion are being tried for the murder of Jack Bergen, film actor

ACCUSED OF MURDER. Geo. Cline, in custody of an officer, on way to courthouse

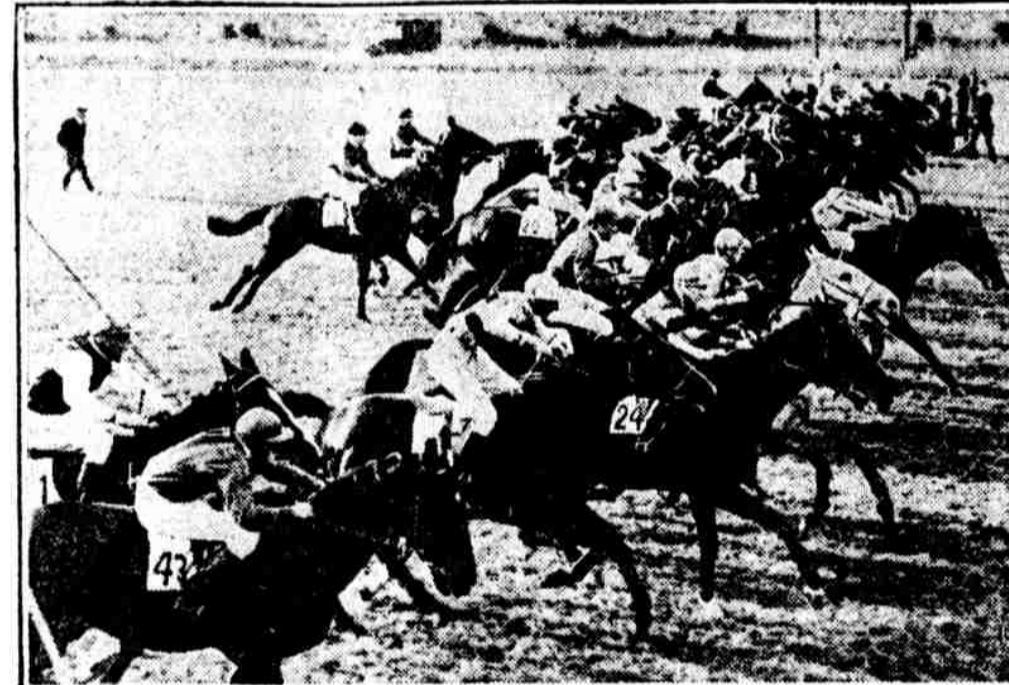

SIX WOMEN SERVE ON BERGEN JURY, chosen within forty-five minutes after court opened. Nearly two score persons were examined. The jury is pictured above

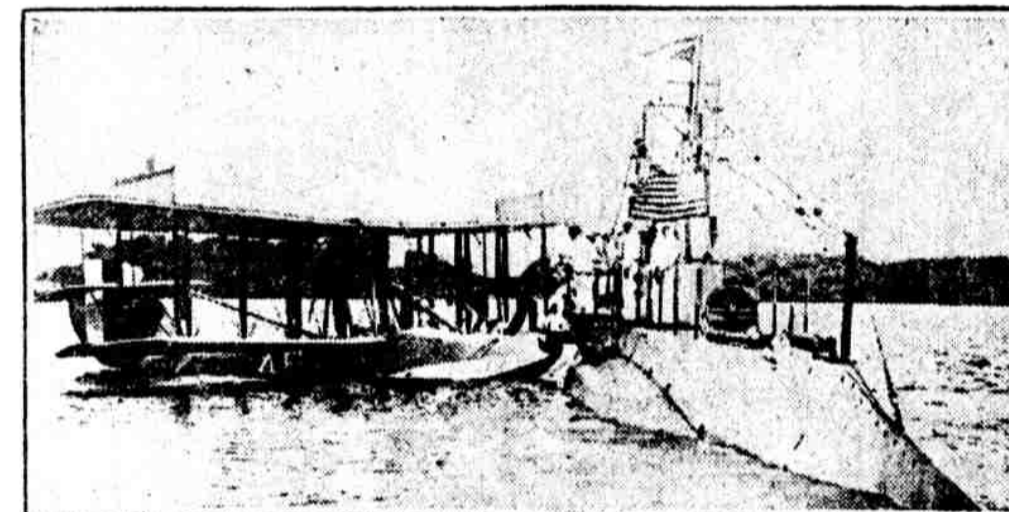

REGISTERING ADORATION, while waiting for a glimpse of the galaxy of movie stars, visiting the mayor. A "close-up" of the crowd at City Hall plaza

SCARFF, husky halfback, of Nativity, St. Bonaventure and Nativity played a scoreless tie yesterday

THEY'RE OFF! THE CAMERA CAUGHT THE START OF THE CESAREWITCH RACE AT NEWMARKET, ENGLAND, in which a field of thirty-one runners participated. The race attracted many lovers of sport from far and wide

JULES VERNE, MODERNIZED. In the air and under the water, Secretary of the Navy Denby making a quick change from sea-plane to submarine at sea, on recent trip to Hawaii

LAYS CORNERSTONE of new masonic home. Former Judge Abraham M. Butler, at yesterday's ceremonies

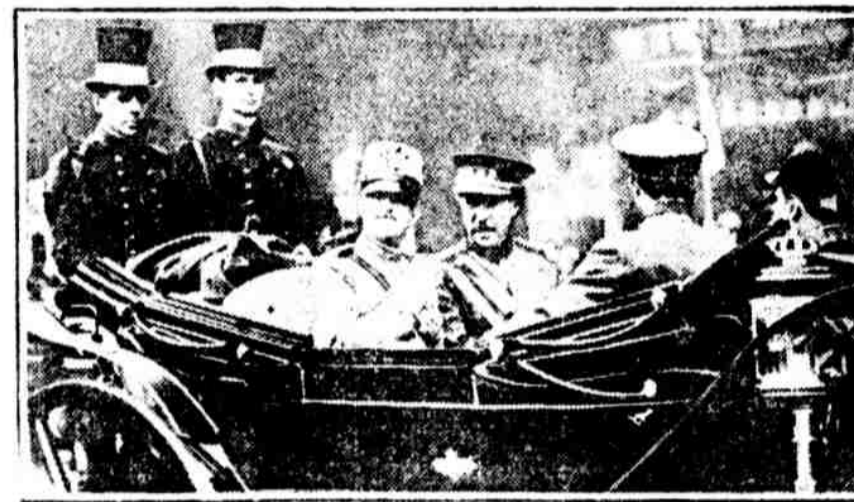

WITH THE TOMMIES IN TURKEY. Turkish vendors are pictured selling British "Tommy," one of the several kinds of knickerbockers for which Constantinople is justly famed

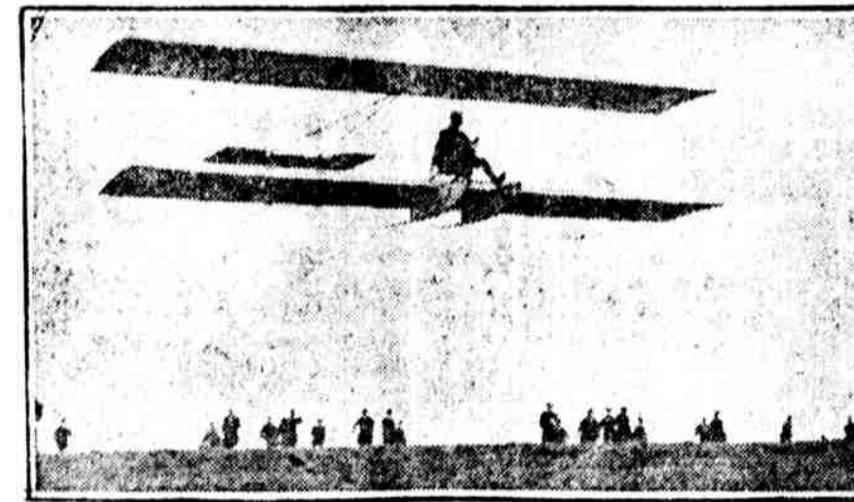

REAR ADMIRAL CARL T. VOGELGESANG, recently appointed head of the Naval Commission to Brazil

78 YEARS "YOUNG." "Divine Sarah" just celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday. Many and varied were gifts sent to Mme. Bernhardt

A PAIR OF KINGS. King Emmanuel of Italy, and King Albert of Belgium, snapped during the former's visit to Belgium, following announcement of the betrothal of Princess Yolanda to Belgium's Crown Prince

TESTING MOTORLESS GLIDER. A. H. G. Fokker, famous Dutch airplane designer, photographed while making an experimental flight on the South Downs, England. Mr. Fokker, shown in picture on the right, seated in his glider, plans to enter it in a coming competition, which carries an award of £1000

MISS MARGARET ZOLNAY, daughter of noted sculptor, George Zolnay

ONE OF FIRST ADDING MACHINES. Vintage of 1892, still in use by Commerce Department

"YELLOW" HOCKEY STAR. Miss Susan Goodman scored three goals in yesterday's game between the Philadelphia C. C. Yellows and the Merion girls. Her team won

LADY AND SIR ROBERT BORDEN, photographed at Hot Springs, where they have been enjoying the pleasant early fall season. Sir Borden was formerly Premier of Canada

Lord Lytton, Associate Justice Win. R. Day, Detective James Foy, called as witness in Rossier trial, Leslie Wilson, regarded as possibility in new British Cabinet

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE HEART OF THE CITY as it looked in 1855. The north side of Market street at Twelfth, now occupied by the Reading Terminal. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs

"BUNNY" BROGDEN, one of fair hockeyists of Cheltenham High

WILL SOON CIRCULATE NEW STAMPS. Assistant Postmaster General Glover and Director Louis A. Hill inspecting first printing of the new Roosevelt stamps