URGE CITY TO PAVE WISCONSIN AVENUE

Georgetown Citizens Reopen Fight—Ask New Traffic Rules for M Street.

Undaunted by the failure of a fight of many years' standing to obtain "adequate repairs" of the surface along Wisconsin avenue, the Georgetown Citizens Association determined to carry on with renewed vigor its requests for the repair of that thoroughfare, at a meeting in the Potomac Savings Bank hall last night. Upon motion of B. A. Bowles, a resolution was adopted authorizing the president, Joseph A. Oliver, to appoint a special committee to take up the matter with the District authorities.

Thanks for Living Expressed in Will Naturalist Made Unworthy, But Hope for Life Everlasting, Adds Prof. Henry Oldys.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., March 24.—Hope for life eternal, but, even if this be denied, deep gratitude for having been permitted "to enjoy this beautiful world" are expressed in the will of Prof. Henry Oldys, naturalist, formerly connected with the Smithsonian Institution. The document was admitted to probate here yesterday. The estate, not large, is left to the widow. "In leaving this world," says the instrument, which was written by Dr. Oldys, "I do so with the prayer and hope that some day it may appreciate the priceless legacy bequeathed to it by Jesus, and thus be led to that perfect system He offered, whose basis is love and faith, whose keynote is entire abandonment of self-interest, and whose object is the establishment upon earth of the highest ideal of social organization—the kingdom of God."
